

Financial Aid/Delayed Payments Form – Athletics & Fine Arts

Students who would like to participate in extracurricular activities but are unable to because of financial difficulties have the option of financial aid.

There are three options for financial assistance:

- Families may choose to pay their fee at a later date
- Families may choose to contribute whatever they can afford for the activity, or
- Families can opt for the minimum fee for the season

One form per family per season must be filled out and turned into the Activities Office prior to the student(s) participating.
