

CPMS Announcements

Monday, October 22nd

Good morning everyone! Welcome back! I hope you have a relaxing Fall Break and have returned ready to work hard!

Please hold off on attendance for a bit.

There is a FPS meeting after school today until 4:15.

Red Ribbon week starts today. You will receive your ribbon and pin today in 1st period. Please wear this proudly showing you are drug free. You will receive a sweet treat at lunch all week starting tomorrow if your ribbon is on and can visibly be seen. Today is Red Day- are you RED-y to be drug free? Tomorrow is Sweat Day-Being drug free is NO sweat!

The CPMS color guard is looking for 6th through 8th grade students interested in learning dance and flag techniques. 7th/8th graders interested should sign up for FIT with Briel this week. Any 6th-8th grade student that would like to join should plan to attend the first practice on Wed. from 2:30-4:30 in the CPMS LGI room.

If you are interested in joining the CPMS Show Choir, there will be a call out meeting in the choir room Friday October 26th from 3-3:45pm. Show Choir is open to any student at CPMS, not just choir students! So come see what it's all about!

Reminder to all 7th & 8th grade boys interested in trying out for basketball, that try-outs start tomorrow, and run the rest of the week. You must have a physical on file to try-out, see Mr. Edens with any questions you may have!

Just a reminder that there is NO Maker Monday in the LMC after school today. You may register for next week's Harry Potter Themed Maker Monday by signing up in the LMC.

This Friday is hot chocolate and cookie day. Students may purchase a cup of hot chocolate for $1 and/or two chocolate chip cookies for $1 out of their English Language Arts classes. Proceeds fund our author from Kwame Alexander this November.

Want a Kwame Alexander book to have signed by the author when he visits in November? Check the LMC Google Classroom for information about the Be a Star Contest for chances to win books by the author. There is also information and a form to sign up to buy gently used copies of Booked, Crossover, or Solo for $5 each. Contact Mrs. Kern if you have any questions about the contest or the book sales.
