

CPMS Announcements

Friday, October 26th

Red Ribbon week dress up day today is Hawaiian Day-"Lei off drugs". All students and staff should get a lei to wear today. Please be mature and responsible with this unique opportunity. Teachers, they are in your mailboxes if you have not picked those up yet. You will receive a sweet treat at lunch today if we can visibly see your ribbon. Today you will have the opportunity to sign the Pledge to be Drug Free poster in the cafeteria during lunch. Please listen for directions when you arrive in the cafeteria for lunch today. We hope you have enjoyed the dress up days chosen by NJHS students. Now, Ava Green an NJHS member had our final Red Ribbon Week announcement

If you are interested in joining the CPMS Show Choir, there will be a call out meeting in the choir room TODAY from 3-3:45pm. Show Choir is open to any student at CPMS, not just choir students! So come see what it's all about!

Today is hot chocolate and cookie day. Students may purchase a cup of hot chocolate for $1 and/or two chocolate chip cookies for $1 out of their English Language Arts classes. Proceeds fund our author from Kwame Alexander this November.

Want a Kwame Alexander book to have signed by the author when he visits in November? Check the LMC Google Classroom for information about the Be a Star Contest for chances to win books by the author. There is also information and a form to sign up to buy gently used copies of Booked, Crossover, or Solo for $5 each. Contact Mrs. Kern if you have any questions about the contest or the book sales.

The next Best Buddies meeting will be on Monday, October 29 from 3-4:15 in rooms D103, D105 and D107. There will be a Halloween theme. Look for information in your Best Buddies google classroom as we will NOT be passing out invitations. Come join us for food, fun, and friendship.

Reminder to those 7th and 8th grade boys still trying out for basketball, tryouts tonight will run from 5:30-7pm.

YHBA club will meet Monday, Oct. 29 from 3-3:30 in the LMC

Finally students, each year we hold a dodgeball tournament to raise money for an important philanthropy chosen by students - typically Riley Hospital. To participate, your 6th period class in 7/8th grade and your 8th period class in 6th grade will need to donate at least $25 by the end of next week. Once the dodgeball tournament begins, the winning classes from each 6th grade floor and each 7/8th grade lunch will play each other during our pep session held right before Thanksgiving breaks. The winners will then get to play against staff who remain undefeated! Each class that collects the most money from 6th and 8th periods respectively will earn an automatic bye into the finals. So bring in those dollars and change next week to help your class enter the dodgeball tournament and support a worthy cause.
