

CPMS Announcements

Wednesday, October 31st

Want a Kwame Alexander book to have signed by the author when he visits in November? Check the LMC Google Classroom for information about the Be a Star Contest for chances to win books by the author. There is also information and a form to sign up to buy gently used copies of Booked, Crossover, or Solo for $5 each. Contact Mrs. Kern if you have any questions about the contest or the book sales.

Greenwood Public Library is hosting a writing workshop with John David Anderson this Saturday, Nov. 3 from noon-4pm. The event is free and lunch is provided. Registration is required.

Reminder there is no 7th/8th boys basketball practice tonight. In addition, all team members should have received an email yesterday from Mr. Edens with a Google Form attached, please complete that form by lunch today...if you did not receive that email, see Mr. Edens this morning.

Remember to begin turning in money today to your 6th period teacher if you are 7/8th grader and 8th period teacher if you are 6th grade student in order to participate in the upcoming dodgeball tournament to raise money for Riley Hospital. Your class needs to collect $25 in order to participate. Once the dodgeball tournament begins, the winning classes from each 6th grade floor and each 7/8th grade lunch will play each other during our pep session held right before Thanksgiving breaks. The winners will then get to play against staff who remain undefeated! Each class that collects the most money from 6th and 8th periods respectively will earn an automatic bye into the finals. So bring in those dollars and change next week to help your class enter the dodgeball tournament and support a worthy cause. Hat Flip Flop Friday for $1 each added to 25 total.

NJHS meets this Friday at 7am

Spanish Club meets tomorrow at 3:00 in room E205.
