

The Annual Calendar

1. During the spring term, the Superintendent shall develop, or cause to be developed, a school calendar for the ensuing school year.
2. Said calendar shall be presented to the Board at a regular meeting for adoption before the end of the school year.
3. The calendar shall set forth days of attendance for students, non- instructional days for professional development, organizational meetings for teachers and administrators, holiday periods, and other events of importance to the staff and public.
4. The school calendar may be modified by the Superintendent during the school year to cope with unforeseen circumstances.
5. The current school calendar follows:
