

Olympia Board of Education Celebrates
BOARD MEMBER APPRECIATION DAY
November 15, 2018

KEVIN FRAZIER was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2007, and became the Board President in May, 2011, a position that he still holds. Kevin serves on the Finance and Negotiations Administrative Sub-Committees, as well as being the Board representative for Olympia's Hall of Fame. He maintains a Master School Board Member designation. Kevin represents the Danvers Township.

Kevin is an employee of State Farm. He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Danvers. They have 3 children and 2 grandchildren.

CAROLYN HANSEN was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2007, and became the Board Vice-President in May, 2011, a position that she still holds. Carolyn serves on the Education/Technology Administrative Sub-Committee and the Community & Communications Administrative Sub-Committee, as well as being the Board representative for the Olympia Foundation For Education. She maintains a Master Board Member designation. Carolyn represents the Little Mackinaw Township.

Carolyn is retired, however devotes much of her time to the 4H leadership programs. She and her husband, Gordon, reside in Minier. They have 3 children and 4 grandchildren.

TRENA GLENN was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2005, and became the Board Secretary in May, 2009, a position that she still holds. Trena serves on the Education/Technology and Finance Administrative Sub-Committees, as well as being the Board representative for the Tri-County Special Education Association. She maintains a Master School Board Member designation. Trena represents the Allin Township. Trena is an employee of Advocate Healthcare. She and her husband, David, reside in rural Stanford. They have 2 children.

STEVE MATTER was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2001. He served as the Board Vice-President from May, 2007 – April, 2010. Steve serves on the Building/Grounds Administrative Sub-Committee, as well as being the Board representative for the Area Vocational Center. He served as Vice-Chair for the Corn Belt Division during the 2016-2017 school year. Steve represents the Dale Township. Steve is an employee of the Heyworth School District. He and his wife, Christie, reside in Covell. They have 6 children, 1 grandchild (and another one on the way).

DOUG MARIS was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2009. Doug serves on the Policy Administrative Sub-Committee. He is currently working toward his Master Board Member designation. Doug represents the Atlanta/Mt. Hope Township. Doug is an employee of LBL Strategies. He and his wife, Michelle, reside in rural Atlanta. They have 3 children.

SHAWN HOHULIN was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2013. Shawn serves on the Building/Grounds Administrative Sub-Committee and the Community & Communications Administrative Sub-Committee. Shawn represents the Little Mackinaw Township. Shawn is the local Veterinarian/owner of Noah's Ark Veterinarian Clinic. He and his wife, Amy, reside in rural Minier. They have 4 children.

LYNN CROSS was elected to the Olympia Board of Education in April, 2015. Lynn serves on the Policy Administrative Sub-Committee. Lynn represents the Atlanta/Mt. Hope Township. Lynn is an employee of State Farm. He and his wife, Kalee, live in Atlanta. They have 3 children.