

Elementary

Raelynn Curnutte

Raelynn is always willing to help others in the classroom. She is very respectful to all of her peers and teachers. She shows respect by always using her manners to say please and thank you. She is a joy to have in class and to work with. She is a model citizen.

Nominated by Mrs. Broadwell

Caden Cyrus

Caden constantly makes gifts for other students (artwork), has given his sweatshirt to students who are cold, offers comforting hugs to students who are sad. Caden even gave his painted pumpkin to a high school volunteer instead of taking his pumpkin home for himself. He has a big, generous heart!

Nominated by Mrs. Seigla

Xavier Fancher

Xavier has been a big help in art class, taking a lot of responsibility for his work and passing out supplies. He's offered to help on multiple occasions without being asked and overall has had a great attitude in class and been a huge help.

Nominated by Ms. Burland

Jr. High/High

Aubrey Burt

Aubrey noticed that a classmate was in need of shoes, so she took it completely upon herself to find out what size the student wore and decided to gift the student a pair of her very own shoes. Aubrey is new to our school and has managed to make such a positive impact. Her outgoing and servitude demeanor do not go unnoticed by our staff or her peers.

Nominated by Mrs. Wolfe

Lillie Holland

Lillie is very helpful, kind, and considerate of others. She is always willing to be partners with someone who needs one and assist others when needed.

Nominated by Mrs. Meranda

Gabriella Roy

Gabriella is a very dependable student. She has perfect attendance, she pays attention, she participates, and she puts a great deal of care into her work. She is appreciated for all that she brings to the classroom.

Nominated by Mrs. Johnson
