

Elementary

Scarlet Chapman

Scarlet is always a kind and caring student in class. She took on our new student with a smile and showed her everything she needed to know to join our family without missing a beat! Having Scarlet guiding our new student gave me the confidence to know she was going to have a great first week!

Nominated by Mrs. Jenny McGinnis

Alyssa King

Alyssa works very hard in math. She asks questions when she doesn't understand and is always eager to do well. She is kind to others and a good friend to everyone, and is always respectful. In January we completed the MAP assessment, and Alyssa's hard work paid off. She had a huge increase in her score, and we are so proud of her!

Nominated by Mrs. Ellis

Lain Mingua

Lain is always eager to learn and is willing to participate in class. He is very responsible and consistently puts forth his best effort to succeed academically. He comes into class, gets his things ready for the day and follows directions. Lain is a great student and a great person. He is friendly, kind and always smiling. He is a pleasure to have in class.

Nominated by Mrs. Hyde

Jr. High/High

Caroline Aubry

Caroline stepped up during the Fall Cooking Club and took a great leadership role. She was a positive force in the group and she stayed late every night to clean up and put things away after the session. It was a great help and her extra efforts made the session run smoothly and created a great experience for all of the students.

Nominated by Mrs. McKinney

Theresa Campbell

Theresa is always well-behaved, kind, attentive and hard-working in class. She always leads by example and is a great role model in class. We appreciate the example that she sets.

Nominated by Mrs. Johnson

Tyson Ellis

Tyson is a great help to the group that does Backpack Blessing bags. He donates his time to step up and help out when they are short of staff or time. He always steps up with a smile and a helping hand. We truly appreciate his extra efforts and helpful attitude. He makes our day!
