Calling All Caring Adults...

- Family-focused program with a team approach

- One-on-one help with the licensing process

We have a crisis-level shortage of licensed foster homes in Skagit, Whatcom and Snohomish Counties. This means that nearly every night, children who've been removed from their family home due to abuse or neglect wait in Children's Administration offices or stay at hotels with social workers while they await placement.

These young people NEED loving foster homes. If you've ever considered learning more about foster care and the various ways you could help, please contact us!

So what's next?
