

Milano ISD Charge Policy Adopted: Dec 7, 2017

As established by the Board, a student with an exhausted or insufficient balance on his or her meal card or meal account shall be allowed to continue to purchase meals for up to 90 school days. The Superintendent shall develop administrative regulations for this grace period to address:

1. The district's processes for parent notification during the grace period, including a schedule for repayment; and
2. Whether the student will be limited to certain foods or beverages during this grace period, and, if so, the District's efforts to minimize overt identification of the student.

No fees or interest shall be charged by the District for meals purchased during the grace period.

Letters will be sent home on the 14th and 28th if your child has a negative balance. All calls will go out on Thursday letting you know your child has a negative balance. After 90 days, there will be no more charging. Your child will need to pay for each meal they receive. If you have had a change in income, you may reapply for free or reduced meals. All charges will have to be paid in full.
