District and Community:

MCHS student enrollment is currently 705 students. A high percentage of students attend Marengo High School for all four years: there is minimal turnover in the student population (approximately 6%).

Racial/Ethnic background for MCHS students is as follows: 78.5% white, 16.8% Hispanic, 0.4% Native American, 0.9% Black, 1.5% Asian. 35.3% of students come from a low-income background, 2.3% are considered Limited-English-Proficient, and 2% of students are classified as McKinney-Vento.

MCHS has implemented a Digital Learning Environment (DLE) program which provides each incoming freshman student with a computer as an essential tool in the delivery of curriculum and instruction.

Marengo Community High School District 154 encompasses the city of Marengo and the Village of Union, plus the surrounding rural areas. The population of the school district, based on the 2000 census is nearly 14,000.

The district is sixty-five miles northwest of Chicago in southwest rural McHenry County. The district is predominantly agriculture, but does contain several large industries as well as smaller industries within the Marengo and Union area.
