

CPMS Announcements

Tuesday, December 11th

This Friday is hot chocolate and cookie day for $1 each and holiday hat day (or any hat) for an additional $1. Holiday hats are encouraged. The hat day money will go to Pack Away Hunger sponsored by NJHS. Please pay your 1st period teacher for Hat Day.

Best Buddies meets today in the main LGI room from 3-4:15. Hope to see you there!

Yearbook Staff we have a meeting today from 3:00-4:15 in B106. Also, check the google classroom page for tonight's concession stand volunteers.

FCA members, our end of the first semester party will be this Friday until 4 pm. Please bring a snack and drink of your choice and have your ride at the school by 4 pm.

Auditions for the Spring play will be held Thursday and Friday, December 13 and 14, after school until 4:30 in Mr. Solis's room, D211. Students interested in auditioning only need to attend one of those two dates.

STEM club will not be meeting this week.

Students please keep bringing the canned food items for the Good Cheer Drive. Give them to your 1st period teacher and receive a raffle ticket for each can you donate. We are collecting through Dec. 17th

Finals Schedule:

- This week: Related Arts/Spanish 1
- Monday, Dec. 17: ELA/Alg 1/Geometry
- Tuesday, Dec. 18: Math/Sci
- Wednesday, Dec. 19: SS

Congratulations again to our 2nd period choir students, Mrs. Billingsly, and Ms. Hagerup for winning the B105.7 Christmas Choir Competition for the middle school level. This morning you may see recording and television crews in the building as the choir is taping three songs to be featured on the radio station and WISHTV. Good luck this morning ladies. We are proud of you!

NJHS members going shopping tonight meet in Mrs. Campbell's room when walkers are dismissed