

ANNUAL VOTE
CANDOR CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT
Tuesday, May 17, 2022
High School Auditorium
12:00 Noon - 9:00 p.m.

Inspectors Cheryll Berg, Seamus Enright, and Ellen Harris were present at noon, with Assistant Clerks Kathy Hinkle and Gina Currie. Inspector Seamus Enright found counters set at zero, ballot information properly entered, and the voting machines in proper condition for use upon inspecting the machines.

Inspector Seamus Enright declared the polls officially open at noon, and Cheryll Berg cast the first ballot as a final machine check.

(Machine #1: Opening Protective Counter # 216; Closing # 363)

(Machine #2: Opening Protective Counter # 8198; Closing # 8271)

A poll list consisting of 220 names and 24 absentee ballots, for a total of 244 names, is attached to the minute book. The machine votes totaled 220 plus 24 absentee ballot votes for a total of 244 votes.

All qualified persons within the voting place when polls were closed had voted. The last vote was cast by Hannah Murray, and the machines were sealed at 9:00 p.m. The absentee ballots were then opened by District Clerk Kathlyn Hinkle, and Inspector Joanne Worden, and the votes were tallied.

Chief Inspector Seamus Enright announced the following results:
