

Charlie vs. Cancer Night

What: J-T vs. Chelsea Basketball "Purple Out"

(4 games) honoring Mr. Charlie
(Wear purple for pancreatic cancer)

When: January 23, 2023

Time: 4:45 - 9:00 p.m.

Location: David Garroutte Gymnasium

Mr. Charlie is one of our "Mr. Fix-it Men", as well as a bus driver. He has been a part of our Wildcat family for a couple years after retiring from a career in carpentry. Mr. Charlie is one of the most upbeat, positive, and compassionate guys on our team. He can usually be found fixing doors, bathrooms, working on the grounds around campus, or driving a bus.

Mr. Charlie is the proud father of Mrs. Stocks, J-T junior high teacher, amazing Papa to Ava and Tyler Stocks, south campus kids, and "bonus dad" to Ms. Boatman!

Unfortunately, Mr. Charlie has been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. He has a surgery scheduled for January 20th to help battle this disease, and then a difficult road to recovery following, but he is up for the challenge as he has beaten cancer a few times before.

Although he is fighting this battle again, we know he will win the war!

There are multiple opportunities to show your support for Mr. Charlie!

- Attending the games and WEAR PURPLE on January 23rd to support our student athletes. Admission prices are $4.00 per adult, $2.00 per student.
- Buy a t-shirt that you can pre-order and wear to the games or purchase the night of (limited sizes will be available that evening),
- Purchase "tosses" for the bucket toss between games for a chance at a $$ prize,
- Bid on an item in the silent auction held in the foyer with last bids taken at half time of the final game,
- Visit the concession stand and enjoy a burger basket, hot dog basket, or other snacks,
- Donations are always welcome!
