In 1948, Tusitala was chosen by the yearbook staff as the title for this book. The American poet, Robert Louis Stevenson was given the name "Tusitala" (which means "a teller of tales") by the Samoan Indians. The Samoan Indians loved to hear the stories Stevenson told.

during the dance.

Weasel from Extreme 96.3 and John Chenery got a little closer at the dance.

An Evening of Surprises

September 18, 1998 was a clear, crisp night. The football team was psyched, the Homecoming Court was nervous, and the community was anxious to watch the game between 'Busco and their bitter rivals, the Central Noble Cougars. The homecoming ceremony was held in the usual fashion during halftime, but it was the Bill Clinton "impersonator" that was the talk of the town for weeks.

The competition between classes for best banner was easily won by the senior class with their Mission Impossible theme. Then, last year's queen, Stacy Pyle, passed the homecoming crown on to Autumn Bonar.

The football game was finished, only the outcome was not what 'Busco had wanted. The Cougars won by a score of 27-13. It was a disappointing end to the home season.

Following the game, The Extreme Homecoming Dance was held in the elementary gym. Weasel from Extreme 96.3 was the deejay and door prizes were awarded. The gym was dark except for the glow of lava lamps and disco lights, and everyone seemed to have a great time.

Christmas Dance

Mike Ott (12) and his date share a special moment.

Jennifer Hauser (9), Kyle Blevins (9), Joey Williams (9), Stephanie Trump (9), and Matt Hosted (9).

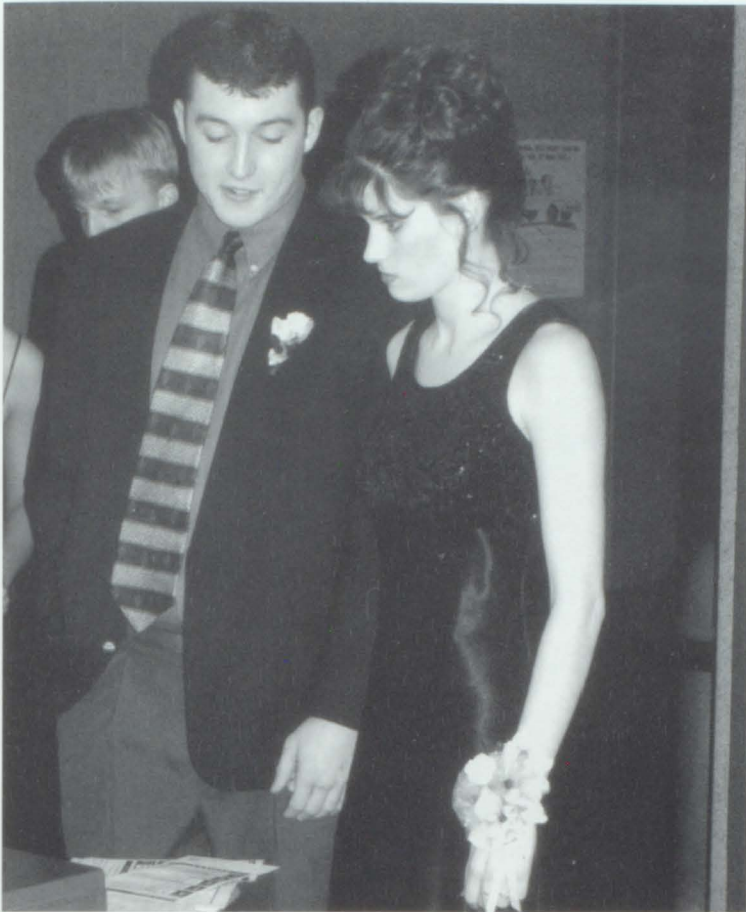

Audrey Comparet (11) and Matt Whan (12) enjoyed their evening.

Ryan Teague (9) and his date Amanda Ramsey (9) enjoy a time-out from dancing.

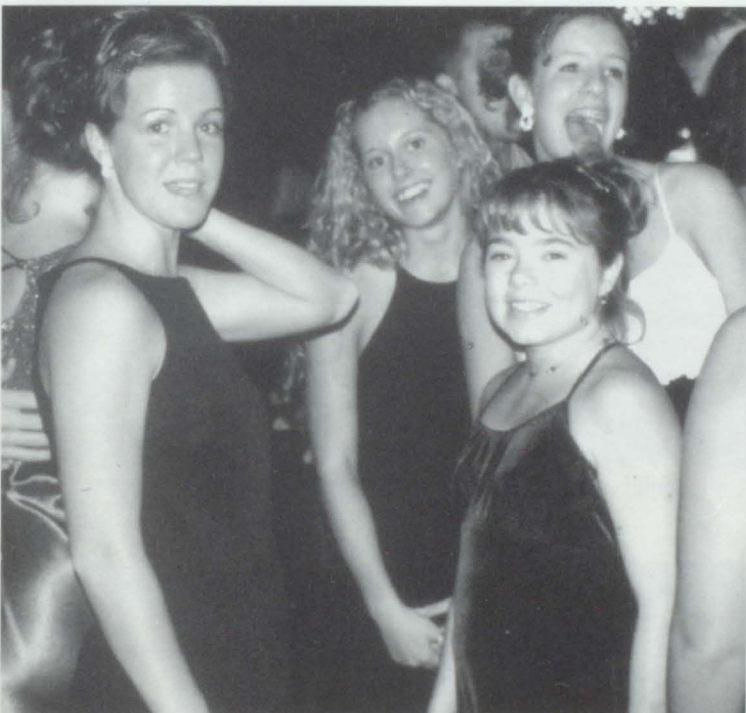

Justin Gordon (12) and Jamie McCoy (12) patiently wait to get their picture taken.

"Aren't they cute?" Chad Gaff (12) and Julie Campbell (12) are oblivious to the camera.

Various nominees for Christmas King anxiously await the results.

Amanda Blevins (11), Heather Bonar (10), Antonia Bartlett (10), and Jaime McBride (10) look surprised as the flash goes off.

Christmas King Austin Papenbrock dances with his date.

PROM 1999

Allison Vonderau and Jeremy Helgesen are crowned prom queen and king.

The 1999 prom was held on April 24 at the Botanical Gardens in downtown Ft. Wayne. It was a beautiful, but chilly, night filled with fun and laughter. The theme this year was "Don't Want to Miss a Thing" and the colors were lavender, black, and silver. Mrs. Tuck and the prom committee members worked very hard to make the night memorable for everyone.

The crowning of the king and queen came at 10:30. Jenna Fairchild and Nick Gump stepped down from their titles and passed the crowns to Allison Vonderau and Jeremy Helgesen. Jenna Fairchild also passed the loving cup down to the Junior class representative, Amy Zolman. The prom ended at 11:30. It was a special night for all who attended.

An Endangered Species: Waking Up

Thespians perform play about life in an average midwestern town.

ROW 1-Justin May, Tiffany Gerig ROW 2- Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Chordas, Shanna Ziadeh, Alissa McDowell, Autumn Bonar ROW 3-Natalee Gradeless, Jon Brunson, Adam Farmer, Shawn Gage, Amy Zolman, Leslie Shively, Todd Petelle, Jenna Fairchild ROW 4-Chad Gaff, Josh Farmer, Brad Hagerman

Everybody gets mad at Todd Petelle, because they say he is "turning everything around" by saying that Shawn Gage is HIV positive.

Why do you feel it is important this play be performed?

Cara Bingham

"The plot hits small town. People don't realize what could and couldn't happen. People need to be informed."

Leslie Shively

"To educate people. This play is not for entertainment."

Jon Brunson

"People need to be educated about risks they take when they engage in sexual activity. The only way to be safe is abstinence."

Shawn Gage

"It has a strong message that needs to be portrayed, because it takes place in a small community, and shows the possibilities of transmission."

New Era

Shawn Gage
"I'm going to miss meeting different choirs, being together with some of my best friends, the satisfaction of looking and sounding good as a choir..."

Justin May
"I'm going to miss swamp water, nervous tenors, and group comraderie."

Shanna Ziadeh
"I'm going to miss the rush of being on stage and performing... just being with fun people and having fun in a way most people have no idea about."

Autumn Bonar
"I'm going to miss the closeness everyone has."

Various members, under the direction of Mr. Miller, perform during the spring band and choir concert.

Everybody seems happy, but tired after completion of one of the songs that won them many awards this year.

Chad Gaff (12) leads all middle school and New Era gentlemen in "Duke of Earl."

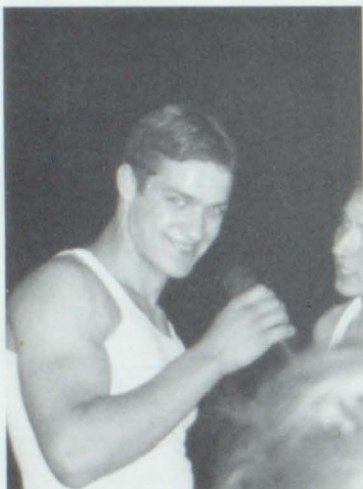

New Era members seem to enjoy the band's performance while awaiting their turn to perform again at the spring concert.

Spectravaganza

The Women's Choir and Chorale show their stuff during a group performance.

Tim Rinker (12), along with some friends, serenade the ladies with "You've Lost That Loving Feeling."

Senior choir members and their parents are recognized during the Saturday night performance.

New Era ladies sing to Matt Geiger (12). He seems to be enjoying it.

Women's Choir and Chorale

The choirs perform their choreography at the spring concert.

Bobbi Jean Basche (11) sings her heart out during a piece that was performed with all middle and high school choirs.

STRUGGLE DAY 1999

Only one important thing can be said about Struggle Day: Juniors beat the seniors at Tug-Of-War!!! Ha! Ha! Ha! Anyway, it was a hot, sunny day. Everyone either had fun or got bored. People got sunburned, wet, or both, and a few people just didn't show up and went to Cedar Point instead. (you know who you are, you naughty people!!) All in all, it was a good waste of a school day!!

-Madalyn Sade

Justin May (12) prepares an arial assault.

Jessi Keith (10) and Joe Kilgore (11) share a warm embrace.

Junior guys- Hey!! Those steroids finally paid off! We beat the Seniors

STRUGGLE DAY 1999

Madalyn Sade(11) tastes the fence...

...and it must be good because Ross Smith(11)-tastes it, too.

Jennifer Deck (9), Jessi Keith (10), Kelly Egner (12), Michelle Blew (9), Rosie Vasquez (10), & Shawn Hanley (10) pose for a picture in the park.

J.R. Barron(12) enjoys the free food.

Retiring after 16 years . . .

I have met a lot of very nice people at Smith-Green Community Schools during the past sixteen years, and some that were not very nice, but the not so nice ones are gone so this is a very good place to be.

Thanks for the good times.

After a battle with brain cancer, one of the most beloved teachers of our childhood died
this year. We want everyone to know how much we loved him and how much he influenced us.

We'll never forget you, Mr. Davis.

"For That I Thank You"

by Natalee Gradeless

The pain hasn't hit me,
but I know it will be great,
I know the sorrow I do see,
I can't anticipate.

You taught me many things,
That no one else will teach,
The joys your smile always brings,
are no longer within reach.

But even when I saw you,
alive and doing well,
I never knew it would be so soon,
when you wouldn't live to tell.

Thank you for the memories,
take them all with you,
remember all the poetry,
that Jenn and I confided in you

Thank you for your wisdom,
which you will no longer need,
I need a little guidance,
I'm hoping your soul shall be freed.

"Set Free"

by Jen Willen

You were a great man indeed
and always helped us when we were in need
God took your soul to rest
For this, we feel very blessed
We know you're in Heaven watching us
You're our guardian angel; in you we trust
You were there through good times and bad
Even though sometimes we made you mad
You touched many hearts and lives
And taught us the evil of lies
In our hearts you will always be
But now your soul is set free

\*Dedicated to Mr. Davis: You taught us many things that other teachers didn't. You have touched my life so deeply- may your soul be at peace while your memory lives on in us. Until the day we meet again . . .*

Mr. Davis in his early years at
'Busco

and in the
'90's . . .

WE'LL MISS
YOU
MR.
DAVIS!!
