

South Holt District Mission Statement

The South Holt R-1 School District in partnership with the citizens of the district have a mission to provide lifelong learning opportunities through a commitment to academic excellence preparing effective responsible citizens to meet future challenges and to live productive lives in a changing society.

Belief Statements

We believe that:

1. All students have the right to a quality education in a safe and productive learning environment.
2. All students can learn and achieve in a school that provides opportunities for success through a wide range of programs, activities, and services.
3. Students should graduate with the skills needed for productive lives in the real world, including career, citizenship, and technology skills.
4. Parents should be involved in their child's education. School and home must work cooperatively to help students be responsible and accountable for the choices they make.
5. The district should employ high quality teachers who are committed to continuous learning and who use effective research based teaching practices.
6. Community members should be kept informed and should be encouraged to take advantage of opportunities to be involved. The district should seek and consider community input.

The District

The South Holt R-1 School District serves the southern portion of Holt County in the northwest corner of Missouri. The School, located in Oregon, also receives students from the towns of Forest City, New Point, and Forbes. South Holt R-1 is the largest of the three schools in Holt County.

The School

South Holt R-1 is a single facility serving student in grades K-12. Several building additions have been constructed through the years to accommodate expanding programs. The most recent addition included a k-12 library media center, a computer lab, two kindergarten classrooms, and a multi-purpose room.
