

SOCIAL SCIENCE

REQUIRED CREDITS: 3

COURSE NAME	DESCRIPTION
--------------------	--------------------

American History

American History is mandated to all freshman. This course will cover time periods beginning with the Civil War and leading to present day. Students will be required to pass the Missouri Constitution test at this level.

Prerequisites: None
Graduation Credits: 1

World History

World History is a requirement for all sophomores. This course includes a combination of World Geography, history from the Age of Discovery, and prominent eras leading to present day that have effected political and economical trends.

Prerequisites: Must be taken as a sophomore, following American History
Graduation Credits: 1

American Government

American Government is requirement for all juniors. This is a political science course dealing with the structure of the American government including the development, processes, and branches in which the system operates. A study of the US Constitution is included and the US Constitution test must be passed at this level.

Prerequisites: Must be taken as a junior, following World History
Graduation Credits: 1
