With Sincere Gratitude to You

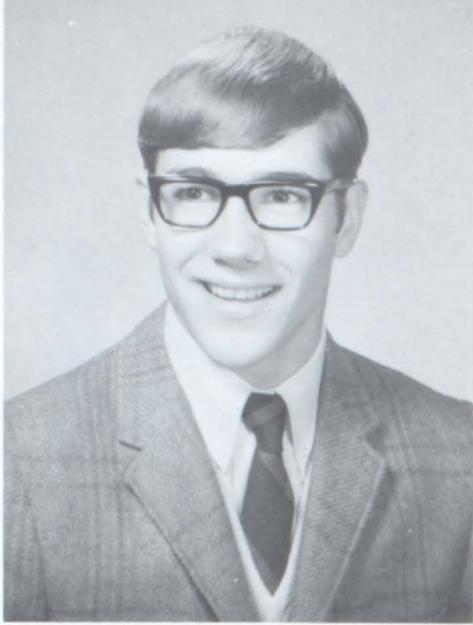

The year is done, the time is gone, and now each of us must learn to walk alone. In every step we take, we search for someone who has given his guidance, his understanding, and his intellectual abilities to us all.

Thus, in honor of your untiring devotion and loyalty to Salem High School, we the class of 1969 dedicate this year's Cub to you . . .

Hiawatha Days Sept. 12-13

Attendants: Rick Ecklein, Pat Anderson, Tom Pearson, Betty Nelson.

Princess: Betty Hansen Prince: Craig Anderson.

September 12, 1968, marked the beginning of Hiawatha Days '68. At the coronation ceremony in the evening, Craig Anderson and Betty Hansen were crowned Prince and Princess by John Degner,

Master of Ceremonies. The girls sextet sang "Falling Leaves" and Nyla Wobig sang the traditional

"Indian Love Call". A snake dance and pep rally were held on Main, concluding the formal activities of the night.

Grand

Homecoming '69

Hiawatha Days Homecoming parade couldn't have been topped. Grand Prize was a snap for the Seniors this year with their large motored snapping turtle. First place was grabbed by the Juniors with a large red tank. Freshmen stomped out a second place win and third was taken by the Sophomores. First prize in the organizational contest was won by the Future Homeamkers of America, featuring the first school bell of McCook county. The Future Farmers of America took second place.

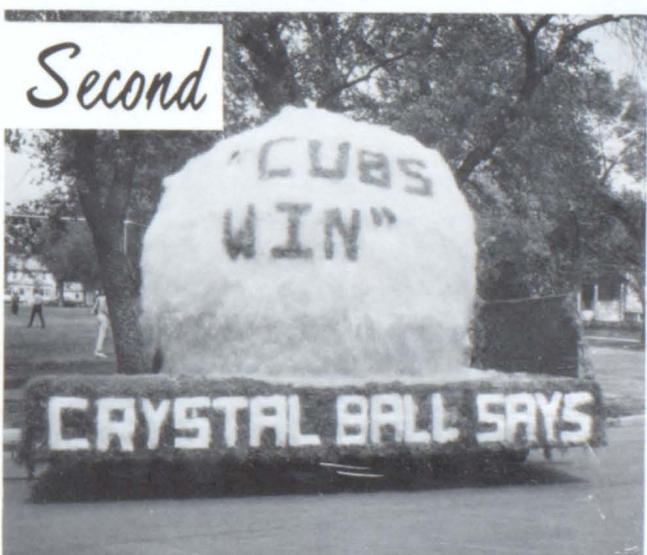

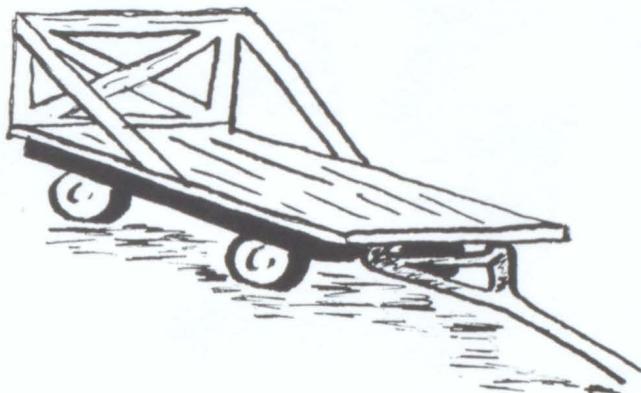

First

... And Imagination Ran Wild

A hard long week of hammers, nails, cardboard, chicken wire, crumbled up newspapers, staplers, saws, ripped clothes, sore fingers, sweat, headaches, cellophane, cellophane, and more cellophane, and most of all imagination created a parade that made SHS's Homecoming a success.

It was a week of much hard toil, with not much to work with, but the results wouldn't be traded by anyone.

Local elimination from a field of fourteen produced four contestants to represent Salem at the district declamation contest. Those winning were: Jill Degner, humorous; Betty Hansen, dramatic; Cheryl Hause, oratory; and Betty Nelson, poetry. Of these four, Betty Hansen went on to participate in Regional Declam at Madison, where she received an excellent rating.

Salem also hosted a "Seconds Contest" with the following people representing S.H.S.: Barb Nelson, Humorous; Gwenna Burman, poetry; Marcia Palmquist, oratory; and Rosemary Skurdal, dramatic. They are shown with their trophy for winning top honors in three of four divisions.

Compulsory Service Debated

As in all our extra-curricular activities this year, the Salem debate teams have also multiplied our forensic honors.

Our season began with the South-eastern Dakota Debate Conference. After three such meets, Salem had added five team trophies and seven individual trophies to our collection, winning in both individual events and debate.

This only started our year. The "A" team tried a new type of debate cross-examination—which proved exciting! The novice debaters were again coached by Mr. Swanson in the second forensic class.

Although our tournaments weren't many in number, because of the weather, we worked hard and finally reached our goal—to place above third at the state tournaments.

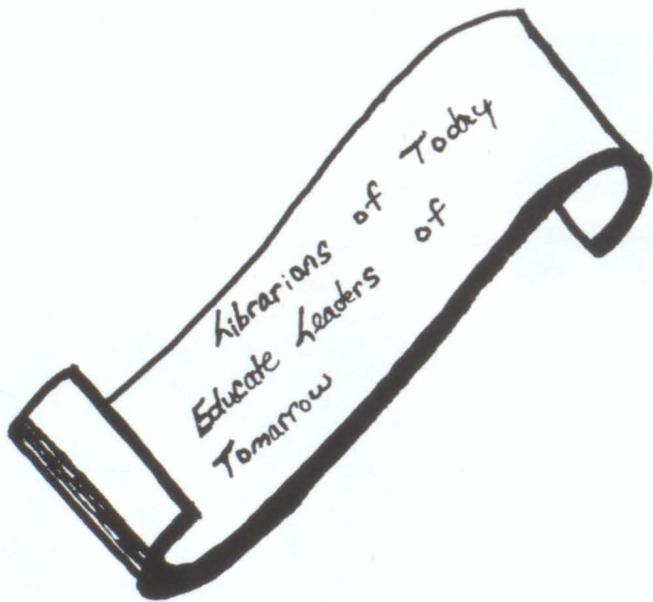

After a victory at the Regional level, we were eligible for the state tournaments. We met Doland in the final round of competition, which left Salem with second place in the Class "B" debate. Debby Omanson placed second in Women's Extemp.

After an addition of seven trophies and twenty-one individual trophies, we can all say we had a successful year.

This year's football team could be classified as an inspirational team. The inspiration can be attributed to the competition that resulted for starting positions. Midway through the season our pride was challenged by two defeats. The players responded by winning the remaining games on the schedule.

Much of the inspiration and leadership was furnished by these senior lettermen: Jon, John, Russ, Ricky, Craig, Chuck, Gene, and David Z. The squad elected Russ, David Z. and Chuck as the tri-captains. The Cubs, who tied for second in the conference, placed Bill M. Chuck, Craig, and David Z. on the Cornbelt Conference Honor Squad. Bill M. Chuck, Jon, and John led our offense which averaged 37 points a game. Larry and Craig led the defense which allowed our opponents 14 points per game.

The players represented Salem with pride and have played an important part in establishing a winning tradition at Salem High School. It had been sixteen years since the Cubs won 6 games in a season!!!

Salem Public High School enjoyed one of its most successful seasons in many years while posting a 17-5 record. Through the season the Cubs won the annual Holiday Tournament, shared the Cornbelt Conference Championship, and was runner-up in District 19 play.

Our leadership for the year, in games and practices, was supplied by the following: Rick, Chuck, Bill, Craig, Russ, and John. Rick and Chuck were selected co-captains of the team. Chuck, Bill and Rick were named to represent Salem in the Cornbelt All-Conference first ten. Bill led in rebounding with an average of 12 per game. Chuck, Rick, and Bill led our offense, which averaged 63 points a game, averaging 18, 16, and 14 points respectively.

It has been our pleasure to represent Salem with such an outstanding group of young men.
