STUDENT DUE PROCESS RIGHTS

MSD 1044

All students are entitled to due process when they are subjected to disciplinary actions such as suspension or expulsion. The Board and school officials have the legal authority to deal with disruptive students and student misconduct. Due process, for most situations, shall be met when:

- (1) The pupil is given oral or written notice of the charges against him;
- (2) The pupil is given an oral or written explanation of the facts that form the basis of the proposed suspension; and
- (3) The pupil is given an opportunity to present his version of the incident.

In more serious situations, as when expulsion is under consideration, additional due process steps are required.
