

CPMS Announcements

Wednesday, January 9th

Attention 6th-8th grade girls interested in joining Girls on the Run: Registration is open. There is lots of financial assistance available. Please see Mrs. Jones or Mrs. Getchell for more information.

As a reminder we still have approximately 300 students who have not updated their Chromebook. This update must be done at home as you are unable to update while at school. If you have any questions, or are unable to update your Chromebook at home, email or see Mrs. Allee.

FCA will meet Friday the 11th at 7 am in room C212. Come join us for a time of fellowship with other students who are journeying through middle school and in their faith.

Yearbook staff there is a meeting on Thursday in B106 until 4:15. Please email Mrs. Burbank if you are unable to attend. Also, check the Google Calendar for Concession Stand Volunteers for Thursday.

If you haven't purchased your 2018-2019 Yearbook, please pick up a form during lunch. Yearbook orders are due in the office by January 30th!

8th grade students who are interested in attending Central Nine Career Center in high school: We will be taking a field trip to Central Nine at the beginning of February. Pick up a permission slip in the cafeteria during lunches today. The permission slips are due Friday, February 1, but we will only take the first 100 students, so be sure to turn in the permission slip as soon as possible.

Last night the 7th/8th Boys basketball teams returned to action against conference rival Plainfield. Both "A" teams were victorious, while both "B" teams fell to the Quakers.

Letters About Literature Contest Entries are due by January 11. Please see Mrs. Kern if you need assistance submitting your online entry. Maker Monday is scheduled for Monday, January 14. Be sure to register as we will be completing a sewing project and need to be sure we have enough materials. 30 Book Challenge t-shirt design voting is open on LMC Google Classroom through Friday, Jan. 11. Vote for ONE design only please.
