

BARNEVELD SCHOOL DISTRICT

ADMINISTRATOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Barneveld School Board recognizes the importance of maintaining awareness and knowledge of current educational practices. Therefore, the Board shall expect the District Administrator to keep informed of these practices through books, magazines, professional organizations and attendance at approved conferences. The District Administrator shall keep the Board and District current in the understanding and application of contemporary educational and organizational theories and practices.

It is also recognized that all members of the administration should make every effort to keep informed about the latest developments and methods in education and their respective fields. The Board expects all administrators to continually work on personal professional development.
