

BARNEVELD SCHOOL DISTRICT

TITLE 1

The Barneveld School District recognizes the importance of parent involvement in the Title I program. The district provides appropriate opportunities for parents to become involved as follows:

1. Parents are informed about their child's participation in the Title I program. Parents are given the reasons why their child was selected and/or eligible for inclusion in the program.
2. Parents are informed of the specific instructional objectives at a personal conference. If they do not come to the conference, a copy of the objectives is sent to the parents.
3. Parents are informed about their child's progress four times during the year.
4. Providing materials and promoting parent help at home.
5. Providing timely information concerning Title I activities.
6. Promoting parent suggestions in planning, developing, and operation of the program. Consider and respond to parent recommendations, if appropriate.
7. Establish a parent advisory council if appropriate.

The Barneveld School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, creed, age, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or disability.

Legal Ref.: Chapter I of the Education Consolidation and Improvement Act of 1981
Elementary and Secondary School Improvement Amendments of 1988
(Section 1018 Subsection (c))
Improving America's Schools Act of 1994
No Child Left Behind Act of 2001

Policy: 342.5

Adopted: November 5, 2014