

Dr. Wayne Fawcett is the Superintendent for the Paris School District. Fawcett has been in education for 36 years. He graduated from Quachita Baptist University in 1982 with his Bachelors, later earning his Masters in Education at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. He received his Doctoral Degree from Harding University in 2017. He is married with two children, four dogs and one cat. He enjoys various sports, amateur art collecting and traveling. Fawcett chose Paris because “Paris has great potential for growth in the education, business and tourism realm. The beauty of the area and location make it a truly great place to live.”

(2018-19)