I don't have a kid at this school, I just get these texts. But idk like to know who my kid is, and how they are doing. I'm a very concerned 22 Woman who doesn't even live close to Dollarway, but I'd like to know about my child

By stop making a big deal over parking and the parents don't have anywhere to park and by enforcing the matter of the teachers talking to the kids and not hollering and keeping there hands off parents children without permission in the classrooms

Having the teachers communicate better with parents about my child progress, grades and behavior in the classroom. Do not wait until a problem gets out of hand or until the teacher is fed up with that student behavior

Teacher and staff need to be fair,

No one has the right regardless of how the child is to treat them different, from the rest!

You need more teachers that care about the students some are just there for a check I think if they change the way they teach and come up with a way to get the students attention and make learning fun instead of just here you go do it the school will be a whole lot better it's all about how the teachers do it give the students a reason to want to learn and come to school I don't hear good things about alot of teachers there and yes some students are a problem but you never know what a child is going through at home instead they label the child instead of trying to help sometimes all our children need is a hug and to know someone cares about them the schools should allow " free dress day" for the kids. Give more incentives.

My child 2yr old I feel like if it wasn't for me and his dad he wouldn't know his ABC's and 1-10

Remove me from your distribution list, I have no one at this school

We need tutoring programs.

More smiles and act like you are happy to be there!

Great school already. Information could be available on the app sooner.

I believe that the school would be much better if people/teachers wouldnt have picks and chooses when disciplining a child ...I recieve numerous of calls a month about my child misbehaving but when another kid act out its avoided and looked over..Dollarway school need to provibe equal rights.Im not to judge when it comes to corporal punishment im for it but when its always 1 child being singled out of 100 thats a problem.Parents aren't even greeted correctly at the door its always a negative vibe.

They want the kids to respect them but are not showing it in return.

James Matthew Elementary is Awesome.Staff ALWAYS KEEP ME INFORMED..THEY ARE THE BEST

Be open and willing

The school needs to expand their activities to attend to the needs of Children with disabilities as those without.

If the staff stop being messy getting in personal business and stop trying to get parents children involved with dhs, work with the students with school work instead of criticizing they, actually do what they are suppose to do as teachers, and get stricter on bullying the school would be better and have more students like Whitehall school district

My child is in the pre-K program. I am concerned about the safety of my child being that anyone can walk in and go straight to classes. Visitors are not required to stop by the office to check in during school hours. This procedure seems to be ok during drop off and pick up time, but I have been to the school several times and walked straight to my child's class with no pass. The front office door is always closed as if parents are not welcomed and no one is usually in the pre-K office. This school is not in the safest environment and I feel that this procedure needs to be revised. This seems very dangerous with all that is going on.

Listen to the kids, do a follow up with their concerns. Please stop telling the kids you will take care of a problem and you dont. Bullying is a very serious situation and if the kids are coming to you and nothing is done, they feel they are not safe and this could lead to other problems.

Weekly communication with parents, offering more ways/opportunities for parental involvement in the classroom and school parties/events/activities

Making the entrance way at the school more wider for the car drop off and pickup better at James Matthews Elementary School the lines are to long and need to do better

I believe that in order to make Dollarway Great Again, the well behaved students must come together and pitch ideas to staff and faculty members. The teachers should not have that "my way or no way" attitude.

We are losing students, changes in policy needs to be made ,uniform?! personally would let them ware regular clothes ,BIBLE even speak against it.Students love Whitehall there's no uniforms. And they still learning. I think we still under state control, we make not have a school next year,I PRAY we do mines graduate in 2020.students and staff NEEDS better relations,

Don't have anything at this time.

Jmes, has came along way. My son started going to Jmes when he was 3yrs old. He's 7 now! My only concern that I have is safety! Cameras threw out the school, in classrooms, most importantly the playground areas.
