

Ridgedale FFA

Blue Jacket Journal

November 2018

On November 7th, 2018, students from the Ridgedale FFA chapter were sent to Bucyrus High School to compete in a food science competition. The few weeks before the students learned all of the steps involved in food science. These steps includes differentiating between similar products, understanding nutrition labels, and other food related activities.