Blue Jacket Journal

April 2018

Ridgedale had its annual recognition banquet on April 9th, 2018. Each member was involved in the preparation and performance of the banquet. Awards were presented to members in the chapter who participated in competitions and events. Members that went above and beyond such as, Adam Beard and Tristan Bivins, received the Star Greenhand Award. As well as Heather Oats who received The Star Chapter Award. Members receiving their State and American Degrees were recognized on stage and presented with a blanket and pillow for their accomplishments. A silent auction was held throughout the banquet and a dessert buffet was provided at the break of the ceremony, along with a slide show, presenting the “Year in Review”, put together by the 2017-2018 officer team. To conclude the 2017 Ridgedale FFA Banquet the 2018-2019 Officer team was recognized and brought onto stage. The new officers are prepared to step up and be leaders of the Ridgedale FFA Chapter.
