

Low-cost Internet Options to Keep You Connected

We believe you should have options for reliable internet, so we've brought some of our most affordable internet options and available assistance programs together for you. See if you qualify for FREE Cox Internet, saving up to $30 per month through the Affordable Connectivity Program. Visit Cox.com/ACP to check your eligibility.

Low-cost Internet Plan ConnectAssist

$30 per month

This budget-friendly internet plan is a great choice for households who currently participate in eligible income-based government assistance programs.

What's in it for you?

- Up to 100 Mbps
- No term agreement
- Wifi modem included
- 1.25 terabytes of data
- EasyConnect self-installation included

Learn more about Connect Assist at Cox.com/connectassist

Low-cost Student Internet Connect2Compete

$9.95 per month

This low-cost internet program for qualifying families on government assistance provides affordable internet for households with K-12 children to keep all members connected.

What's in it for you?

- Up to 100 Mbps
- No term agreement
- Wifi modem included
- 1.25 terabytes of data
- EasyConnect self-installation included

Learn more about Connect2Compete at Cox.com/c2c

Flip to the back

More options for low-cost internet can be found on the back.

Affordable Internet & Digital Equity Programs From Cox

Cox is deeply committed to bridging the digital divide in communities across the United States where it operates. To achieve this goal, the company has established several Internet plans under its Affordability Program to meet the unique needs of all eligible customers. This flyer provides an overview of the various Affordable Internet plans Cox offers. To learn more, visit cox.com/digitalequity.

	Connect2Compete Internet Tier	ConnectAssist Internet Tier	Emergency Connectivity Fund Internet Tier	Special Payment Program (CARES Act)	ACP (Affordable Connectivity Program)
Description	Cox's fast low-cost internet service specifically designed for families with children in grades K-12 who receive government assistance.	Cox sponsored affordable internet for low-income individuals receiving government assistance – this program is similar to Connect2Compete but is targeted to households without children K-12	Government funded internet tier specific for K-12 schools and libraries to request on behalf of unconnected students/patrons and qualified staff to subsidize 100% of internet monthly Active through June 2023	Government funded program that allows schools, businesses or other organizations to pay for residential internet services. The payor may obtain funds from any source, such as CARES Act or State General Funds	Government sponsored program that allows eligible low income households to receive $30 off their monthly internet service
Cost & Billing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> $9.95/month (with wifi modem rental) Installation included Customers pay Cox directly Note: Schools or other organizations can pay Cox directly on behalf of group of students through the Special Payment Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> $30/month (with wifi modem rental) Installation included Customers pay Cox directly Note: Schools or other organizations can pay Cox directly on behalf of qualified individuals or families through the Special Payment Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> $30/month (billed to schools/libraries) $20 one-time modem purchase $100 pro install (if needed) Cox will bill USAC directly then send statement to School or Library USAC will pay 100% up to the School or Library's approved funding allocation 	Organizations can subsidize up to 100% towards monthly service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must include at least 25 participants Payor defines benefit amount they will pay for each participant Payor sends one payment to Cox each month Can apply to any Cox Residential Service Tier 	Customer receives discounts of up to $30/month ($75 for Tribal lands) off their internet service, 1.25TB/month (maximum $30/month for data overage) Cox submits for reimbursement to USAC/FCC monthly Eligible households receive $100 subsidy toward a laptop or desktop computer.
Features	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to over 3M+ Cox Hotspots nationwide Cox Security Suite – online safety software tools Access to the Cox Digital Academy, which provides educational resources 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to over 3M+ Cox Hotspots nationwide Cox Security Suite – online safety software tools Access to the Cox Digital Academy, which provides educational resources 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to over 3M+ Cox Hotspots nationwide Cox Security Suite – online safety software tools Access to the Cox Digital Academy, which provides educational resources 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to over 3M+ Cox Hotspots nationwide for specific internet tiers Cox Security Suite – online safety software tools Access to the Cox Digital Academy, which provides educational resources 	All standard internet plans qualify for the Affordable Connectivity Program, including Connect2Compete, ConnectAssist. Cox's prepaid product, StraightUp Internet is eligible starting 4/1/22
Qualifications	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Must have a child in K-12 at home Must participate in one of the following government subsidy programs: National School Lunch, SNAP, TANF, Head Start, WIC, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), Public Housing 	Must participate in one of the following government subsidy programs: SNAP, TANF, Head Start, WIC, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), Public Housing, Pell Grant, Veterans Pension, Tribal Programs, Supplemental Security Income (SSI)	Eligible households must be identified by participating school or library and certified as being otherwise unconnected without the subsidy	Eligible households must be identified by the payor directly	Participation in one of the following government subsidy programs: National School Lunch Program (NSLP), SNAP, TANF, Federal Public Housing, LIHEAP, WIC, Head Start, Pell Grant for current academic year, Tribal Programs, Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Veterans Pension & Survivors Benefits or proof income is 200% or less than federal poverty level guidelines
Learn More	cox.com/c2c	cox.com/connectassist	cox.com/ecf	cox.com/caresact	cox.com/acp

