

Michelle Tredway

Michelle Tredway earned a Bachelor of Music Degree from the University of West Florida and a Master of Music in Music Education from Florida State University. She continued post-graduate Piano Performance Studies at the University of South Florida. Tredway has been a collaborative pianist for the Imperial Symphony Orchestra, the Okaloosa Chamber Singers, The NWFSC Symphony Chorale, 18 Okaloosa All County Choirs, six All State Choirs, 19 Twin Cities Honor Choirs, and many other collaborative performances over the years. Kodaly trained and Orff Certified, she has taught elementary music, AP High School Music Theory, Middle School Chorus, and High School Chorus. Additionally, she spent 8 years as a Music Professor at Southeastern University.

Tredway was privileged to work as an Okaloosa County Middle School Choral Director for 10 years, during which her choirs consistently earned the highest rating of 'Superior' from all adjudicators at District Music Performance Assessments. Furthermore, while under her direction, her Middle School Choirs earned FVA 'Choir of Distinction' status all 4 years that that delineation had been in existence.

At present, she is honored to work as Choral Assistant and pianist for Catherine Feazell and the Niceville High School Chorus. She also serves as pianist at Rocky Bayou Baptist Church, where she worships with her husband Chris.
