SAT/ACT Tests

SAT/ACT tests are not required for CSU's or UC's. They are test blind which means they will not take test scores into consideration when admitting students. Most private colleges and out of state public colleges have gone test optional as well. Please check your individual college or go to Fair Test to check on the testing status of a specific school.

If your school requires or recommends these tests, go to collegeboard.org to sign up for the SAT or ACT.org to sign up for the ACT.
