What is it?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that affords parents the right to have access to their children's education records, the right to seek to have the records amended, and the right to have some control over the disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records.

How does it affect me?

Once a student reaches 18 years of age or attends a postsecondary institution, he or she becomes an "eligible student", and all rights formerly given to parents under FERPA transfer to the student. The eligible student has the right to have access to his or her education records, the right to seek to have the records amended, the right to have control over the disclosure of personally identifiable information from the records (except in certain circumstances specified in the FERPA regulations) and the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education. The term "education records" is defined as those records that contain information directly related to a student and which are maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting for the agency or institution. Under FERPA, a school may not generally disclose personally identifiable information from an eligible student's education records to a third party unless the eligible student has provided written consent.

What does this mean?

Basically, this means that the only person we can share information regarding your education in adult school is you. We cannot share information with anyone else without your written permission

Superintendent's Message

Welcome back!

We are honored that you have selected Modesto City Schools to continue your education. Whether you are completing your high school diploma, improving your English skills or pursuing a career oriented class, Modesto City Schools Adult School is the place for you. Each member of our Adult School program is committed to helping you reach your goal.

Our new Adult school program continues to expand with offerings that match our community's needs. We are providing support that will help you reach those goals in the form of child care while you are in class, alignment with Modesto Junior College to make that transition seamless if that is your goal, Career guidance, and personal counseling supports.

Our goal is to provide all of the services you need to meet the demands of the real world. We want all of our adult students to reach their goals and we feel like we are your partner in that pursuit of becoming productive citizens and contributors to our community.

Sincerely,

Sara Noguchi, Ed. D.
Superintendent

About Us

We are delighted to welcome you to Modesto City Schools Adult Education! We serve a diverse population of students who enroll in our classes to earn a high school diploma, learn a trade or improve their English language skills.

We currently offer diploma track classes through independent study a NO COST. Students work online through our APEX curriculum. Weekly meetings are scheduled with our teachers to maintain progress. The majority of these courses are A-G approved and are used in various programs a throughout our school district. Our diploma track classes are open entry/open exit and students self-pace their progress through the curriculum.

Students also have the option of obtaining their high school equivalency though HiSet Examination in English or Spanish. To earn your high school equivalency, students must pass 5 tests: Reading, Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Classes are taught through Modesto Adult School to prepare students to pass all 5 tests. Modesto Adult School will cover the cost for 1 attempt of each test (may vary depending on funding). We offer classes in English or Spanish at NO COST.

We also offer English as a Second Language classes for adults at NO COST. These classes are located at various school sites throughout Modesto. These classes employ a blended learning strategy with the teacher using the Burlington English online curriculum.

Citizenship courses are available to assist students with passing the qualifying examination. Classes are offered at NO COST.

Students may pursue a Certified Nursing Assistant certificate through the program housed at the Pearson Education Center (fee required). Additionally, we offer a Welding and Sheet Metal Fabrication course off-site at a facility on Hackett Road in Modesto at NO COST. Additional job preparation trainings may include Forklift Operation, Bus Operator, and Sports Officiating. Visit our website for updated information.

Our goal is to contribute to your personal and academic success. Additional skills earned through Modesto Adult School will increase your earning potential and employability. We look forward to helping you achieve your goals!

Antony Little
Director, Alternative Education

BOARD POLICY 5145.3, NONDISCRIMINATION IN EDUCATION PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES (Federal and State Law)

District education programs and activities shall be free from discrimination, intimidation, bullying, and/or harassment, *based on race, religion, ethnic background or national origin, language, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, economic status, physical or developmental disabilities, or other special needs, or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

The Governing Board seeks to ensure opportunities for all students in admission and access to programs and courses, counseling services, athletic programs, testing programs and courses, counseling services, athletic programs, testing procedures, vocational education, and other activities.

All school staff and volunteers should be careful to guard against discrimination and stereotyping in instruction, programming, and supervision.

Students have a right to exercise complaint procedures which provide a prompt and equitable means for processing discrimination and harassment complaints (see BP 1312.3, Uniform Complaint Procedures and AR 5145.3).

Federal and state law and District policy prohibit retaliatory behavior against any complainant or any participant in the complaint process.

The District will act to investigate all complaints, either formal or informal, verbal or written, of harassment, bullying, intimidation, and/or discrimination and take appropriate action against any pupil, teacher, administrator, or other school personnel who is found to have violated this policy. The District will also act to take appropriate action against parents, community members, and visitors at school sites or school-sponsored events.

For the purpose of this policy, discrimination, intimidation, bullying, and / or harassment are considered written, verbal, or physical acts of a severe, persistent, or pervasive nature that affect a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity, or create an intimidating, threatening or abusive environment.*

BOARD POLICY 5145.7, STUDENT SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Prohibits sexual harassment of any student by any employee, student, or other person in, or from, the District.

Expects students or staff to immediately report incidents of sexual harassment to a site administrator or to another District administrator. Each site administrator has the responsibility of maintaining an educational and work environment free of sexual harassment.

Each sexual harassment complaint shall be promptly investigated in a way designed to respect the privacy of all parties concerned. This responsibility includes discussing this policy with his/her students and employees and assuring that they NEED NOT endure sexually insulting, degrading, or exploitative treatment or any other form of sexual harassment, including harassment because of sexual orientation.

MATH COURSES

PRE-ALGEBRA

Course topics include reasoning, proof, and the creation of sound mathematical arguments; points, lines, and angles; triangles and trigonometry; quadrilaterals and other polygons; circles; congruence, similarity, transformations, and constructions; coordinate geometry; three-dimensional solids; and applications of probability.

ALGEBRA

Course topics include problem-solving with basic equations and formulas; an introduction to functions and problem solving; linear equations and systems of linear equations; exponents and exponential functions; sequences and functions; descriptive statistics; polynomials and factoring; quadratic equations and functions; and function transformations and inverses.

GEOMETRY

Course topics include reasoning, proof, and the creation of sound mathematical arguments; points, lines, and angles; triangles and trigonometry; quadrilaterals and other polygons; circles; congruence, similarity, transformations, and constructions; coordinate geometry; three-dimensional solids; and applications of probability.

HISTORY COURSES

UNITED STATES HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY

United States History and Geography begins with the establishment of European colonies in North America and then traces the nation's history from post-Civil War to the present. Students examine the beliefs and philosophies that informed the American Revolution and the subsequent formation of the government and political system, then evaluate the attempts to bind the nation together during Reconstruction while simultaneously exploring the growth of an industrial economy. Moving into the 20th and 21st centuries, students probe the economic and diplomatic interactions between the United States and other world players while investigating how the world wars, the Cold War, and the "information revolution" affected the lives of ordinary Americans. Woven through this chronological sequence is a strong focus on the changing conditions of women, African Americans, and other minority groups.

WORLD HISTORY

In World History, students learn to see the world today as a product of a process that began thousands of years ago when humans became a speaking, traveling, and trading species. Through historical analysis grounded in primary sources, case studies, and research, students investigate the continuity and change of human culture, governments, economic systems, and social structures.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

History Courses con't.

U.S. GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

In U.S. Government and Politics, students examine the history, principles, and function of the political system established by the U.S. Constitution. Starting with a basic introduction to the role of government in society and the philosophies at the heart of American democracy, this course provides students with the knowledge needed to be informed and empowered participants in the U.S. political system.

ECONOMICS

The course covers fundamental properties of economics, including an examination of markets from both historical and current perspectives; the basics of supply and demand; the theories of early economic philosophers such as Adam Smith and David Ricardo; theories of value; the concept of money and how it evolved; the role of banks, investment houses, and the Federal Reserve; Keynesian economics; the productivity, wages, investment, and growth involved in capitalism; unemployment, inflations, and the national debt; and a survey of the global economy.

SCIENCE COURSES

LIFE SCIENCE

The Living Earth integrates biology with Earth and space science. Throughout the course, students apply fundamental biological concepts to better understand how living systems and Earth's systems are interrelated and interdependent.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Course topics include energy, forces, electromagnetism, waves, matter, chemical reactions, and nuclear reactions. Teacher-scored labs encourage students to apply the scientific method.

BIOLOGY

Biology focuses on the mastery of basic biological concepts and models while building scientific inquiry skills and exploring the connections between living things and their environment.

PRINCIPLES OF RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND RESPECT TO ENSURE A SAFE SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

“Rights are best guarded and responsibilities best exercised when each person and group guards for all others those rights they wish guarded for themselves... A society is only as just and free as it is respectful of this right for its smallest minorities and least popular communities.”

Charles C. Haynes, PhD

IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE THEIR EDUCATIONAL POTENTIAL, ALL STUDENTS HAVE A RIGHT TO ATTEND SCHOOL AND PARTICIPATE IN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES:

...Where respect for the rights of others is a standard set by the Board of Education, and where the Superintendent and each principal, classroom teacher, District staff member, and student take responsibility for safeguarding those rights.

...Free from discrimination and harassment based on race, religion, ethnic background or national origin, language, gender, sexual orientation, economic status, physical or developmental disabilities, or other special needs.

...In which the total school environment is free from verbal or physical intimidation or harassment, including sexual harassment; vulgar or abusive language; derogatory ethnic, racial, or sexual slurs or conduct; or acts of violence.

...In which the dignity and worth of all individuals are respected.

Proposition 8, Right to Safe Schools. “All students and staff of primary, elementary, junior high and senior high schools have the inalienable right to attend campuses which are safe, secure, and peaceful.”
