Attention athletes: Physical paperwork is online!

- If you did not play a fall sport, you and a parent must create accounts at www.planeths.com to complete all of your physical paperwork. You will need to print Sections 6 and 7 to take to your physician, then upload section 7. The physical must be dated after June 1, 2022!
- If you played a fall sport, you will need to log on to your planeths.com account and complete Section 8, the Recertification. If an injury has occurred since the initial physical was done, you will need to also complete Section 9, have it signed by a physician, and upload it.
- If you did not play a winter sport but already created your accounts at planeths.com to play a winter sport, you can check with Mrs. Bright (w_bright@conradweiser.org) or Ellen Cerasoli (e_cerasoli@conradweiser.org) to see if you are already on the roster.

High school winter sports are scheduled to start on Friday, Nov. 18. Middle school winter sports are scheduled to start on Tuesday, Nov. 29. Physical paperwork must be completed before these dates in order to be able to participate. If you have any questions, contact Mrs. Bright or Ellen Cerasoli at 610-693-8542, ext. 6266 or at the above email.

Congratulations to all HOBY applicants on your wonderful essays and accomplishments! We had a total of 9 top-notch applications and the decision process was difficult. In the end, the committee chose Alaina Giffing as our HOBY representative and James Arnold as our additional student. Congratulations to both!

SENIORS – The Cookie Dough fundraiser is coming on November 17th! On Thursday, November 17th please pick up your cookie dough orders at the loading dock. You may begin picking them up at 2pm and they will be available until the PM Tech busses return. Please see Mr. Rohm or Katelyn Murphy with any questions.

SENIORS: The Reading Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee is accepting applications for Electrical Apprenticeship from November 1st-December 31, 2022. This training is the path to becoming a journeyman electrician. As an apprentice, you would complete a 5-year program that consists of 8,000 hours of on-the-job training and 1,000 hours minimum of classroom training. The cost of this training is funded by the NECA and the IBEW, with little or no cost to the apprentice, while receiving excellent wages and benefits. Stop by the Counseling Office for complete details.

ATTENTION WRITERS! On Friday, December 9, the CW Writers Guild will sponsor “Ink Tank 2022,” an all-day in-house writers’ workshop, and YOU are invited to apply. This is your opportunity to spend a day alongside other serious writers honing your craft, challenging your limits, and sharing your writing with and responding to the writing of others. Our special guest for the day will be A.S. King, whom the New York Times Book Review has described as “...one of the best Y/A writers working today.” It doesn’t matter if you write poetry, fiction, or nonfiction. If ink is in your blood, we’d love for you to apply. The deadline for submitting your application along with a sample of your work is Friday, November 18. Visit the CW LMC Schoology group for a link to the application. You can also contact Mr. Heffner or Mr. Rothenberger for more info.

There will be a mandatory informational meeting for any students interested in Spring Track and Field or competing in winter competitions. The meeting will be held during PLT on Tuesday, November 29th in the auditorium. There will be several changes to the upcoming seasons so it’s important to make the meeting if possible. Any questions, reach out to Head Coach Jasmine Butterworth at coachjasmineb@gmail.com.

Are you looking for something to do in the winter to spring months? Do you enjoy music and performing? Consider joining the Conrad Weiser indoor program! There is percussion and there is colorguard. No previous experience is required! Come to a clinic on November 14 or 16 to see what the activity is all about, and spread the word to your friends! See Mr. Lutz in the bandroom for more information.

Do you have what it takes to win Weiser’s Got Talent? We’re bringing back Weiser’s Got Talent, and we’re looking for YOU to show us your talent! Any talent is welcome, including dancers, singers, musicians, comedians, gymnasts, etc. You may sign up as a solo act or a small group. Sign up this week using the QR codes located around the school, at Mrs. Proietto’s room, and at Mr. Price’s room! Weiser’s Got Talent will be live streamed during PLT, judged on the spot, and winners will proceed through several rounds until they get to the LIVE PERFORMANCE in front of the school! Winner gets a cash prize! Sign up today!! You don’t want to miss this! The sign up link will close at the end of this week.
