CALLING ALL NERDS!
CW Esports club, in cooperation with some of the other nerdy clubs in the school are hosting a FREE Nerd Night in the HS library on Thursday, December 1st. The event starts right after school until 7pm and is open to ANYONE who wants to attend – you do not need to be a club member. Here are some of the fun things we plan to offer that night:
Dungeons and Dragons
Video Games (DDR, Valorant, Jackbox, Mario, Switch)
Karaoke
Trivia
Card Games (MTG, Pokemon)
Board Games (Catan, etc.)
Escape Room
Snacks
If you have any questions, or suggestions, see Mr. Rothenberger. Consider joining us!

SENIORS: The Reading Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee is accepting applications for Electrical Apprenticeship from November 1st-December 31, 2022. This training is the path to becoming a journeyman electrician. As an apprentice, you would complete a 5-year program that consists of 8,000 hours of on-the-job training and 1,000 hours minimum of classroom training. The cost of this training is funded by the NECA and the IBEW, with little or no cost to the apprentice, while receiving excellent wages and benefits. Stop by the Counseling Office for complete details.

There will be a mandatory informational meeting for any students interested in Spring Track and Field or competing in winter competitions. The meeting will be held during PLT on Tuesday, November 29th in the auditorium. There will be several changes to the upcoming seasons so it's important to make the meeting if possible. Any questions, reach out to Head Coach Jasmine Butterworth at coachjasmineb@gmail.com.

JUNIORS & SENIORS: Upcoming college representative visits:

- Tuesday, November 29th — Cedar Crest College @ 1:00
