

SARAH WEEKS AUTHOR DAY IS ALMOST HERE!!!

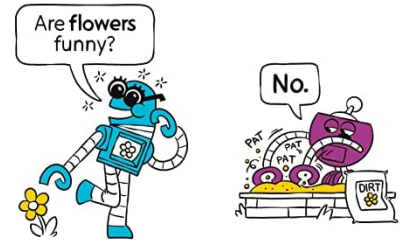

Dear Families,

All of the students in Lincoln School have been anxiously awaiting the arrival of our award-winning visiting author, Sarah Weeks. Sarah will be spending the day at Lincoln School next Thursday, November 3, to discuss her books and writing process.

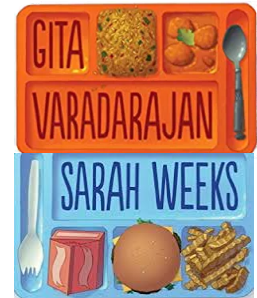

In honor of Sarah's visit, we are going to show our "Sarah spirit" by dressing in honor of her books.

Kindergarten and First Grade- Wear blue or purple to school in honor of Blippo and Beep, two of the funniest robots around!

Second and Third Grade- Wear yellow or orange to school. This is in honor of Sarah's book Cheese with Oggie Cooder and his famous ability to "charve" cheese!

Fourth and Fifth Grade- Wear blue or orange to school. This is in honor of Sarah's book Save Me a Seat, with Joe and Ravi's blue and orange lunch trays.

Thank you for helping to make this day such a success!
And don't forget:

SHOW YOUR SARAH WEEKS SPIRIT NEXT THURSDAY!
