

NAME _____

Copyright © 2019 Edmentum - All rights reserved.

Generation Date: 02/04/2019

Generated By: Lisa Smith

BLIZZARD BAG #2

1. Decomposers are organisms that

- A. can only be seen using a microscope.
 - B. feed upon living organisms.
 - C. use sunlight to produce food.
 - D. break down matter from dead plants and animals.
-

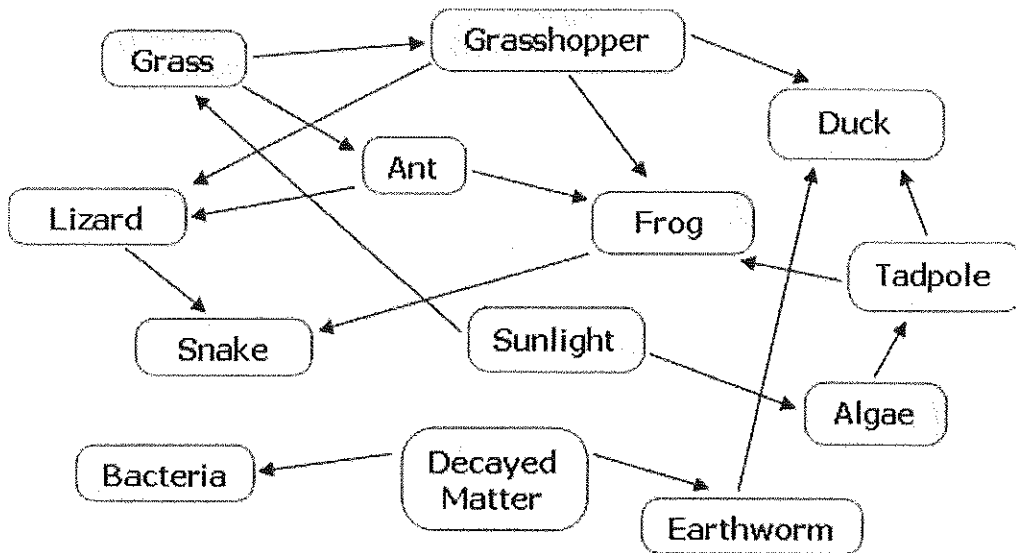

2. Which of the following is true?

- A. Consumers depend upon producers for food.
 - B. A producer must be a plant.
 - C. A producer usually gets food by hunting other organisms.
 - D. A person that prepares his/her own meals is a producer.
-

3. An organism that makes its own food is known as a _____.

- A. carnivore
 - B. consumer
 - C. decomposer
 - D. producer
-

7.

In the food web above, the ant gets its energy from which organism?

- A. grasshopper
- B. lizard
- C. grass
- D. frog

8. Producers are usually the first organisms listed in a food chain. They provide energy to the other organisms in the food chain.

Producers get energy from _____.

- A. eating plants
- B. eating animals
- C. water
- D. the Sun

11. The ultimate source of energy for almost all living organisms is

- A. plants.
 - B. bacteria.
 - C. the Sun.
 - D. animals.
-

12. Squirrels eat nuts, seeds, fruits, and insects. A squirrel is which of the following?

- A. an herbivore
 - B. a producer
 - C. an omnivore
 - D. a carnivore
-