

Barneveld School Board
School Board Compensation

Barneveld School Board members' salaries are set at the annual meeting. School Board members attending Regular or Special Board Meetings will be compensated at a standard rate (currently $50 per meeting). All other meeting attendance will be compensated at a lower rate (currently $45 per meeting).

Committee members appointed to standing or ad hoc committees of the Board will be compensated. Board members invited to attend committee meetings by the District Administrator or Board President will be compensated. Board members, not appointed or invited to a committee meeting, but attending voluntarily will not be compensated for attendance.

Board members who attend meetings of organizations related to the business of the Board will be compensated on a per diem basis, at the same rate as committee meetings, plus expenses. Examples include annual conventions, workshops, or seminars of the State or National School Board organizations.

School Board members who serve on governing, or advisory Boards of other educational organizations, as a function of their membership on the Barneveld School Board, will be compensated, for up to 12 meetings annually at the same rate as Special Board Meetings. Examples include the governing board of a Technical College, Cooperative Educational Service Agency, etc.
