

BARNEVELD SCHOOL DISTRICT STUDENT FEES

The Barneveld School Board may charge student fees for certain activities, courses and services. They may also assess charges when school property is damaged or lost.

Fee schedules shall be consistent with state and federal laws/regulations. Assessments for damaged or lost school property will be the replacement cost of the property plus any appropriate shipping or handling fees, installation or labor charges.

Families who claim a financial hardship may discuss this with or submit a statement of need to the district administrator. The district administrator will make a decision and advise the parent. The Barneveld School Board will be kept advised of appropriate actions.

After exhausting all other approaches for the collection of outstanding fees, assessments etc., including bad checks, the district administrator shall be authorized to secure the services of legal counsel in the effort to collect monies owed the school district. No lawsuit shall be filed without the approval of the Barneveld School Board. Procedures shall be developed for the collection of fees, assessments and charges.

The Barneveld School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, creed, age, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or disability.
