

Fire Drills

Regular and frequent fire drills are to be held in every school building in accordance with Maine state law and regulations. A card will be posted in a conspicuous place of each school to report the fire drills and any unusual results which may have occurred during the drills. Special fire exits should be used in all buildings where they exist to train the students how they should act in any emergency.

Approved: May 4, 2007