

LEAVE YOUR OLD FLAME BEHIND.

For a limited time, residents of King, Pierce and Snohomish Counties can receive $350 for recycling their old, polluting wood stove.

Additionally, residents of Snohomish County wanting to upgrade to new, cleaner heat can instead opt to have their old wood stove or fireplace insert scrapped in exchange for a $1,500 discount toward the purchase and professional installation of new cleaner heating equipment.

Funding is limited; one project per household. After enrolling, applicants must submit photos of their old wood stove or fireplace insert to be reviewed for eligibility.

$350 BUY-BACK REWARD

King, Pierce, and Snohomish Counties

Bring your old, but working, wood stove or fireplace insert to our designated recycling location and receive a $350 reward.

To be eligible, you must have an uncertified or pre-1995 EPA certified wood stove or fireplace insert, free-standing manufactured fireplace, wood-burning furnace, or residential coal-burning device. Your old device must be in working order but can be installed or uninstalled.

$1,500 REPLACEMENT DISCOUNT

Snohomish County Only

Scrap your old, but working, wood stove or fireplace insert and receive a $1,500 discount toward the purchase and installation of a new, cleaner-heating device.

Replacement options include electric heat pump; natural gas, propane or oil furnace; or natural gas, propane or pellet stove or insert. Replacement equipment must meet certain efficiency and/or emissions requirements. Work must be done by a program-approved heating contractor. The discount may not be used for new wood stoves or inserts.

To be eligible, you must have an uncertified or pre-1995 wood stove or fireplace insert, free-standing manufactured fireplace, wood-burning furnace, or residential coal-burning device. Your old device must be installed and operable in order to qualify.
