

"The most important thing that parents can teach their children is how to get along without them"

– Frank A. Clark

You Know Your Child Best

Please answer the following questions about your child so we can together create a learning environment that will help your child reach their full potential!

Please do your best to answer each question. If you really do not know the answer, please let me know so that we can discover together the best way for your child to reach their full potential.

Questions:	Answers:
What do you see as your child's greatest strengths or skills?
What style of a learner is your child: visual, auditory, or kinesthetic (hands-on)?
Next June, what do you hope your child says about his/her experience in school this year? What's the story you hope he/she would tell?
What are your fears or concerns about your child in this year of school?
If overwhelmed, what are the ways your child copes?
Is there anything else you can tell me about your child that you think would help me support his/her learning?
What is the best way for me to be in touch with you this year? Email or phone call?

Thank you for taking the time to answer the questions above.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Radel
