

Intro to Human Communication

Course Description

COMM 11200 is an introduction to basic theories of communication and includes an examination of techniques of communication in three common communication settings: interpersonal relationships, group gatherings, and public gatherings. The public context includes a minimum of three speeches. At least one speech is an informative speech and one is persuasive. All students are required to give at least three speeches. Topics to be covered include, but are not limited to, nonverbal communication and listening.

How to Sign Up!

- Email or visit your guidance counselor
- Visit Ms. Crosby in the College and Career Center

- Earn transferable college credit while enrolled in high school!
- Get support to help with managing your course load!
- Pay only $300 total cost - significantly less than collegiate level cost!

2023 Online Class Dates 8:00 - 9:00 am

January

11, 18, 25

February

1, 8, 15, 22

March

1, 15, 22

April

5, 12, 19, 26

2023 In-Person Class Dates

11:15 am - 2:00 pm

(Transportation provided for in-person class meetings)

January

23

February

27

April

17, 24