

Green Country Energy Innovation Scholarship

Green Country Energy is a power generating company dedicated to providing Oklahoma's electricity. This scholarship was created to support a student who wants to pursue a college degree in a STEM-related field. Green Country Energy values education and wants to encourage the next generation to seek out and expand their knowledge so they can make great strides in the field of science, technology, mathematics and engineering.

Award: $2,500 paid in two installments of $1,250 per semester.

Requirement:

1. Graduating senior from Bixby High School
2. Citizen of the United States
3. Permanent resident of Oklahoma
4. Submission of an application and essay
5. Submission of high school transcript

Restrictions:

1. Scholarship to be used for tuition and fees
2. Student must attend a 4-year college or university
3. Student must major in STEM-related field