ANNUAL STAFF

PUTTING TOGETHER MEMORIES

The hard-working individuals pictured on these pages are members of the Annual Staff. Members were selected by the advisor, Mrs. Dunaway, on the basis of writing skill, creativity, dependability, ability to work well with others, and interest.

Generally, two students from each class are appointed to the staff and these people remain on the staff throughout their high school years if they perform well and wish to continue. This year we had one senior--Melvin Schultz; two juniors--David Beauchamp and Ken Purdy; two sophomores--Ranee Fulton and Keith Brown; and two freshmen--Liz Headrick and Gordon Dunaway.

David Beauchamp, with two years of prior experience, was appointed editor for the 1977 MOUNTAINEER. Keith Brown has been staff photographer for the past two years.

Members of the annual staff shared many frustrating-but-fun experiences and many long work-filled hours putting together the 1977 MOUNTAINEER, but we feel that it will be worth the effort. Hope you think so too!!!

Gordon and Liz, the newest members of the staff, get a page ready for the publisher as Mrs. Dunaway helps out with the typing.

This must be a year for growth--growth as individuals and as classes. While you may forget many of the figures and facts that were taught during your high school career, the attitudes and social mores that were formulated here will likely stay with you forever.

It is our hope that the school was fostered, and helped develop, a healthy, constructive attitude for every student.

Ernie Okeson, Superintendent

Mrs. Lucille Goodell
 High School Secretary

Incoming superintendent Mr. Okeson faces the students for the first time just prior to the beginning of registration.

REGISTRATION

Kah-Nee-Ta Indian resort lies quietly awaiting the invasion of the senior class of 1977.

Kah-Nee-Ta Indian resort in Eastern Oregon was the site of the 1977 Senior Skip. The members of the senior class and Mr. and Mrs. Downey climbed aboard the bus at 4:30 a.m. on Friday, May 20.

They arrived at the resort about 9:30 in the morning, and began the day. Students were allowed approximately $20 each spending money. Most went swimming for the day, but others golfed and rode horseback.

The trip to Kah-Nee-Ta will probably be remembered by all the students as one of the highlights in high school.

SENIOR

The tribe prepares to start exploring the tee-pees and other scenes at the resort.

Robyn and Mrs. Downey prepare for a swim in the resort's pool.

Cindi and Mr. and Mrs. Downey enjoy swimming in mid-afternoon.

SKIP DAY '77

THAR'S MAH BOOTS!!!!

Nineteen nervous Freshmen entered the halls of Falls City High in the Fall of 1976. By mid-year, we were down to fifteen, having lost Donald and Tony Cotta to Dallas, Joe Mack to Albany, and Sandy Meyers to California. Joe Slay joined our class for a brief period early in the year.

The ninth grade was rairly active. Most of the boys went out for one or more sports or served as managers for the teams. Two freshmen, Liz Headrick and Gordon Dunaway, were members of the MOUNTAINEER staff; Liz was Homecoming Queen; Sandy Meyers was Christmas Queen; and Dave Radie and Kevin Sickles made the Varsity basketball team.

Under the leadership of advisor, Mrs. Morris, the Freshmen class enjoyed a full year of classes and activities.

One phase of producing the paper that all staff members had to learn how to do was "justify" the columns. Here Richard checks to see that the margin is set at "35".

Deede, the only female member of the paper staff, works with Tim, Richard, Mark, and Doug to assemble the paper and get it out on time.

Mike concentrates on getting that staple in just the right position.

Elected cheerleaders were Carin Godlove, Laura Jambura, Cindi Sample, Deede Webb, and Raneé Fulton. These girls served as the rally squad during football season.

During the course of the year, Deede, Carin, and Laura quit, leaving only Cindi and Raneé to carry on to the end of basketball. Toward the end of basketball season, Robyn Stevens and Sherree Way (members of Drill Team) began working with the girls as cheerleaders.

WOOD SHOP

YOU MADE WHAT?

In the general shop class, the students were taught the use of shop tools and machinery and basic shop procedures.

ART

The art classes began the year with seed mosaics, then went to calligraphy, a unit on composition, and some shrink art at Christmas.

The new year began with wheat paste puppetry which resulted in the presentation of two puppet shows for the kindergarten and one for grades K through 6.

Just before Easter the classes made linoleum block prints and printed Easter cards. An art appreciation unit and field trip to an art museum in Portland followed.

Hat making for the Pentacle production of "Sunny Girl" and sketching scenery around town finished the year.

PLEASE PASS THE CRAYONS

Ken Martel is busily engaged with yarn & sequins.

The art class appears to be undisturbed by the presence of the camera.

"Auntie" (Robyn) looks to Rudy Boles (Jeff M.) for support as that lazy nephew, Lance (Vernon), takes life easy.

DRAMA

Robert brightens up the set with a paint brush.

HELP US FAKE IT THROUGH THE NIGHT

The second semester of English III-IV was devoted to the study of drama. The class learned how to apply make-up, stage terminology, and acting techniques. The final product of the drama class was the presentation of a 3-act comedy "Auntie's Money." Pictures on this page were taken at a rehearsal session.

Everyone in the class was responsible for some part of the production.

QUILTING

Laura Radie hand

Pressing the quilt blocks is another phase of the job.

Many students found something new and different in the "Quilting" class offered by Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Downey.

Boys and girls alike learned the value of time and patience in achieving the desired results. But the results were worth the effort.

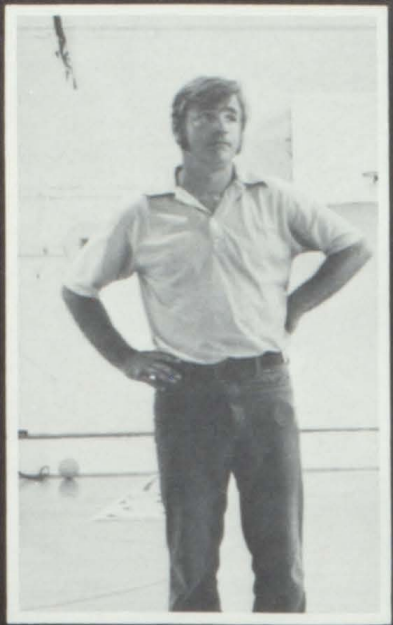

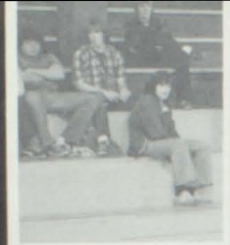

Beautiful quilts were displayed by several students at the end of the year.

Deede Webb and Tim Sickles are pictured working on another Home Ec project: redecorating the faculty room.

The students worked out the project, chose the wallpaper and paint, and did all the work themselves. Mrs. Goodell's office was also redecorated.

A G-I-R-L on a baseball team?
Carrie Wagner was the first in the history of baseball at FC.

The baseball team had to face very tough competition this season due to the fact that we were placed in a league with much larger schools than ours.

At this writing, half-way through the season, we stand 0-8 in league play and 5-13 in season play, but are hoping to do better the second half.

This season was a first in one respect--for the first time ever, a girl, Carrie Wagner, played on the baseball team.

ANNUAL PARTY

OH, REMEMBER...

The MOUNTAINEER staff held the Annual Party during the first week of school. Staff members Ranee Fulton (ABOVE LEFT) and Kenny Purdy (ABOVE RIGHT) distributed yearbooks.

About thirty alumni and members of the student body gathered on the high school lawn to autograph yearbooks and talk over last year's good times.

GAMES PEOPLE PLAY

Advisors try to score points for their classes
during SPIRIT WEEK:

Earl Jambura, Soph.
Rita Downey, Seniors
Judy Morris, Frosh
Mike King, Juniors

By the end of the week
the Juniors had accumulated the highest number of points.

Freshman Sandy Meyers beams after having been crowned Queen of the Christmas Dance and assuming her position in the Queen's chair.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

MOVING WITH THE CHRISTMAS MAGIC

Anxiously awaiting the announcement of the Christmas Queen are Junior princess Deede Webb and escort David Beauchamp, Freshman princess Sandy Meyers and escort Melvin Schultz, Sophomore princess Haley Cuneo and escort Pat Rodewald, and Senior princess Sherree Way and escort Mark Salleng.

Queen Sandy cuts the traditional Christmas cake.

Dancers enjoy the music and the spirit of the Christmas season.

Robyn, Joy, Jeff, and Cindi in a scene from Act I.

Getting ready: Mrs. Dunaway transforms Robyn into "Old Lady" Case. BOTTOM: Cindi tries not to blink as her eye make-up is applied.

Berthanna tries to get Lance off the couch and away from the blood-sucking parasite she is out to exterminate.

Rudy (Jeff) looks on as Drs. Jones and Stockton introduce themselves.

AUNTIE'S MONEY

"Such rowdyism," exclaims Mrs. Case as Lance attacks the quack who is about to fleece her.

Lance prepares to make his getaway with "Auntie's Money."

Drs. Stockton and Jones prepare to perform their brand of ear "surgery" on Mrs. Case.

"Auntie's Money" was a 3-act comedy presented May 18 and 19 by the English III-IV class. Although it was a first for some of the actors, they did a good job and the play was well-received by the community.

Most of the students enjoyed presenting the play, and all agreed it was quite an experience. The group used some of their gate receipts for a pizza party a few days after the play.

THINGS WE DID THIS YEAR

SLAVE AUCTION

Underclassmen wait patiently for the seniors to be brought to the "auction block."

The auction of the seniors for Senior Slave Day is a rather recent "tradition" at FCHS, but it is a fun time for slaves and buyers alike.

This year's auction was held in the library with the 13 graduates of '77 and their advisor being auctioned off to the highest bidder by Mr. Owre. The event added some entertainment and some dollars to the senior class fund.

Larry laughs at such a low bid for an obviously superior product, as Mr. Owre pleads, "Ah, come on--be reasonable!"

GOING ONCE . . .

Mrs. Downey takes her turn--trying to convince bidders that she's stronger than she looks.

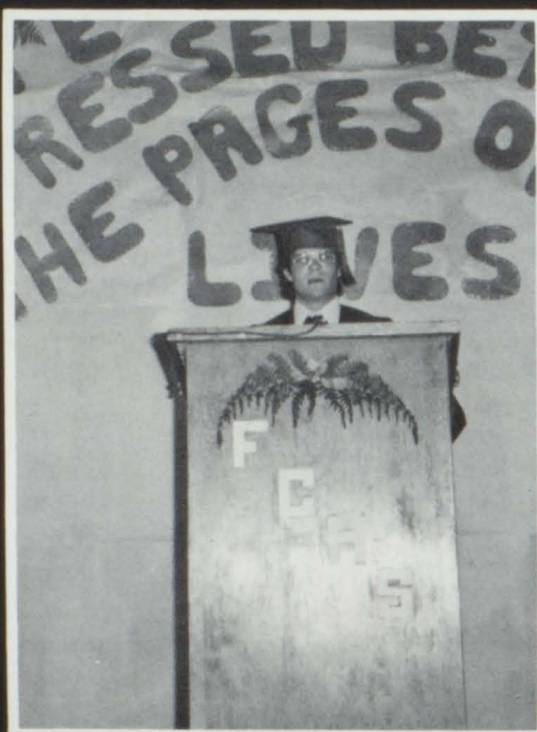

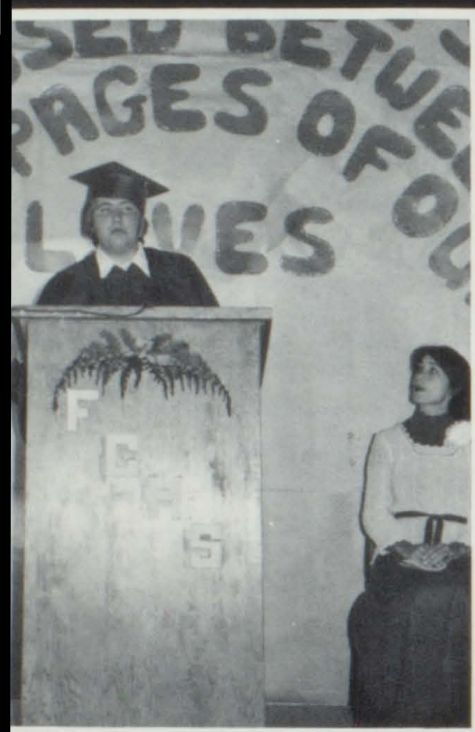

Mr. Owre accepts a bid on his first victim, Doug Dunaway, as other seniors and their advisor, Mrs. Downey, await their turns.
