

Daily Announcements

February 21, 2019

Mentors: We will be mentoring on Friday, February 22. You will be called down by an announcement. Please remember to wear your green shirt.

Students: The library will be closed to check out books from February 15th through February 26th due to the book fair. If you have previously checked out a book and it is due during this week, you will not receive a fine. NEW: Even though the book fair closes today, you can still order online until February 26th. Flyers with coupons are available in the office.

Suckers will be delivered today during 6th hour.

If you are a band student, and are missing a pair of glasses, please come to the office.
