Arnold Fredrickson Memorial Scholarship

Selection Criteria

The Scholarship is open to graduating seniors and alumni planning to pursue a higher degree of education in the field of music. Graduating seniors will be given preference over alumni. In the event that a current year graduating student does not qualify based on the criteria, the scholarship may be open to Dayton Alumni students who are pursuing a music degree or course of study (i.e. possibly even students who have previously received the scholarship and are continuing their course of study).

Scholarship Amount

Up to $2,000.00 will be distributed annually for scholarships either in two $1,000 scholarships or one $2,000 scholarship.

Who May Apply

Student must have attained a good academic standing through seven semesters of his or her high school career. This does not mean being the student with the highest grades, but one who is doing his or her best.

Must be or in process of being accepted by a two- or four-year accredited college/university or technical-vocational school as a full-time student.

Application Procedure

- Write a letter of application for a field of study relating to music.
- Resume
- Transcript
- Letter of reference/recommendation from one teacher or principal
- Letter of reference/recommendation for one community member
