

March 8th

What a fantastic week! We are back to a normal routine and the kids had their thinking hats on! We learned about letter K and reviewed many skills (rhyming, alliteration/beginning sounds, subitizing and syllables). Conferences are next week and I am excited to share their growth with you.

We'll talk about letter S next week, even though we only have 2 days of preschool. No Preschool on Thursday or Friday due to conferences!

The show and share calendar made it home late. I apologize. We'll make up the friends we missed - just send an item in their backpack and write 3 clues to go with it!

Our 100th day of preschool will be coming soon. We're in the 80's!

Both classes are close to earning their good behavior class parties soon. Ask your child how many good choice tickets we have and what party we will have when we earn 10!
