In the case of an Emergency (weather-related or otherwise) no more than two days in a row will be deemed E-Learning Days; any days needed past the 2nd day would be traditional Emergency Days, which have to be made up at the end of the year. In addition, if there is a need to use more than 5 E-Learning Days, each one will have to be made up. Although rare, the end date of the school year could be extended. The last possible date for the 23-24 school year could be June 6, 2024.
