STUDENTS CONVICTED OF A FELONY

Any student who is convicted of a felony in adult court may not participate in extracurricular activities, including practice, for one year starting from the date of conviction or during the period of probation, whichever is longer.

In the event that a student is found guilty of a felony, the superintendent, principal, probation officer, student, parent(s) and other school officials as deemed necessary shall meet to determine appropriate educational plans. These plans may include, but are not limited to: a regular school setting, correspondence work, alternative high school setting or home bound instruction.
