School Safety a Priority at Washington-Nile LSD

The 2017-2018 school year had come to a close. I would like to thank the students, staff, parents, and school community for another successful year.

School safety has been a number one priority for the Washington-Nile Local School District. Our school community works very hard to promote a culture that ensures the safety of our students and staff. We have completed a safety audit for us to use as a gauge to improve our current methods of operation. We will have improvements made for the start of the 2018-2019 school year.

I want to wish everyone a safe and enjoyable summer break. School will start for students on August 22, 2018.

Jeff Stricklett

W-N Superintendent

"Wall of Positivity"— Positively Inspiring!

"Attitude is a little thing that makes a big difference." Winston Churchill

Sophomores Breanna Skaggs and Kinzey Hempker may not know Mr. Churchill's quote, but they certainly know what he was saying. Recognizing the many internal and external pressures, fears, and anxieties many students face today, they created a way for all to share kind, encouraging words to make a day a little brighter.

With support from Mr. Bazler and Mrs. Blevins, they chose April 20th as a way to commemorate Columbine, but in a way to allow a forward looking, positive view, rather than holding on to the negative. Breanna and Kinzey spent several weeks writing post-it notes and creating posters with inspiring quotes. Students were encouraged to take a note that touched them, or share a note that inspires. The wall was much appreciated and very well liked by the student body. The wall remained up for one week and they have plans to bring it back in the future.

Well done Breanna & Kinzey!

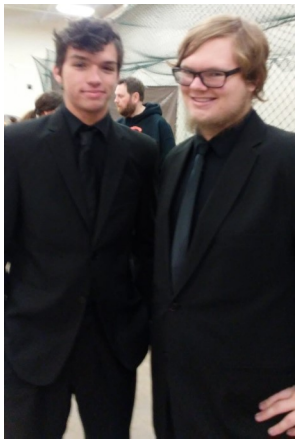
PWMS Chamber Choir Receives Superior Rating

The PW Middle School Chamber Choir competed at the OMEA Large Group Competition this past spring and received a superior rating in Class A, which is the hardest class the Junior High can compete at. All three judges awarded the choir the highest rating.

The only Junior High choir to compete, the ensemble had to perform three songs of contrasting styles . The group were one of 22 bands and choirs that competed and one of only five groups to receive the superior rating.

Congratulations PWMS Chamber Choir!

"The Gold Rush Adventure" - Original Musical



Noah Lovins & Dalton Pertuset

Seniors, and long-time friends, Noah Lovins and Dalton Pertuset are now composers and playwrights, preparing to premier their original musical, "The Gold Rush Adventure". The pair have been working on the production since May, 2017 and plan to premier their show this coming August.

Working with Olivia and Susan Foster at Portsmouth Area Children's Theatre (PACT), they have been able to create a show children grades 3-5 can relate to and enjoy. A selected audience showing was given on June 8th giving them an opportunity to "fine-tune" their production using audience feedback.

Both are very excited and would like to invite everyone to come see their original musical production of "The Gold Rush Adventure" this August at Portsmouth Area Children's Theatre. Noah and Dalton hope to take their show on the road this fall to local schools.

"A Penny for Your Thoughts" - PWMS Annual Dinner Theater

On May 18th & 19th, the PWMS staff (with the help of a couple of elementary teachers), performed their annual interactive dinner theater. This year the play was "A Penny for Your Thoughts". All the staff really enjoyed spending time together through the rehearsals and performance, allowing everyone to learn new things about other colleagues and it helps raise money for a good cause. This year's proceeds went to the PWMS Newspaper.

Mrs. Linda Tieman Receives Outstanding Teacher Award

The Coalition of Rural and Appalachian Schools recognized Mrs. Linda Tieman, PWHS Vocal Music Director, as Outstanding Teacher this past January. Unbeknownst by Mrs. Tieman, Mr. Stricklett nominated her stating, "she is an outstanding teacher, she is able to get her kids to where she expects them to be, that's why her vocal music program is so strong. During the holidays, she travels throughout the county at Christmastime and performs concerts...always giving back to the community and the school."

Dr. Renee Middleton, Dean Palton College of Edu: Mr. Jeff Stricklett; Mrs. Linda Tieman; Paolo DeMaria, Super Public Instruction ODE.

The award surprised Mrs. Tieman, as she was unaware she had been nominated. She was also pleasantly surprised to find a former student also received the award. "It had been many years, since I had seen him, so then I associated him with one of m students, he's the father of one my students, who is in the show we are doing right now. It was all just like full circle, I had his son as a student, he was my student and he was also receiving the award, which was totally awesome. It was a great feeling. I was happy one of my students was receiving the award also" she stated.

Mrs. Tieman is also very active in the community. "I'm very passionate about working with The Breast Cancer Compassion Fund when it first started, for personal reasons, I just thought it was a great cause." Every four years the senior class puts on a major review fundraiser and has raised quite a bit of money in support of organization.

"I think the more the kids can be involved with the community, the stronger the community will get. They are our future...you kind of live by example. That's what we (teachers) do."

Congratulations Mrs. Tieman!

PWE Teacher Publishes Children's Book

Jennifer Morgan, Portsmouth West Elementary teacher, and Jessica Lincecum, Green Elementary teacher, have written a children's book, Bridge Lane. The story was inspired by their passion for homelessness and love of children's books. After years of hard work and perseverance, their dram became a reality. On May 3, 2018, the book launched at Market Street Café' in Portsmouth, Ohio. The overwhelming support shown by family, friends and community members made the launch a success.

Middle School Hosts Career Day

Over 47 area professionals spent May 17th with PW middle school students sharing their knowledge, discussing educational and career paths, and answering a lot of questions. Students had 45 minutes to visit various experts of their interests. Each student carried a career questionnaire and asked each professional at least three questions.

PWMS librarian, Sheree Barnett, touted the event as a great success. "Our community came together for the students here at PWMS. They took their entire day to explain and contribute knowledge to our students. The event was extraordinary and one that students talked about until the end of the year. I personally am so thankful for our giving community, the wonderful teachers at PWMS that love and support our students, and an administration that allow us to provide these opportunities to our students. I would also like to thank all the professionals for taking time out of their days for this. They made a difference in our students lives!"

Read Across America Celebrates Dr. Seuss

The National Education Association's Read Across America is held each year on March 2nd, celebrating the birthday of beloved children's author Dr. Seuss.

"In cities and towns across the nation, teachers, teenagers, librarians, politicians, actors, athletes, parents, grandparents, and others develop NEA's Read Across America activities to bring reading excitement to children of all ages….And teachers and principals seem to be more than happy to dye their hair green or be duct-taped to a wall if it boosts their student's reading." (NEA)

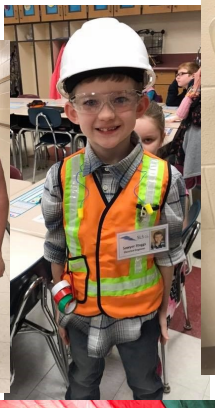
"Motivating children to read is an important factor in student achievement and creating lifelong successful readers. Research has shown that children who are motivated and spend more time reading do better in school." (NEA)

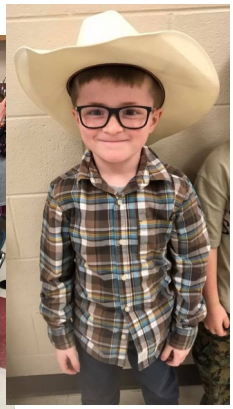
Visit nea.org for great resources and activities for year-round ideas that will inspire your child in his/her love for reading.

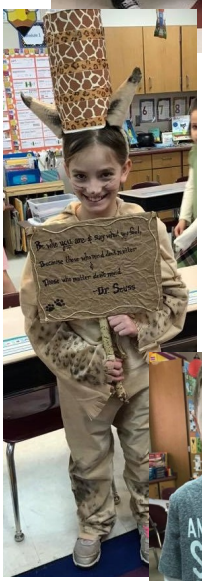
WHY READ 20 MINUTES PER DAY AT HOME?

Starting in Kindergarten-6th grade if child reads daily, will likely score higher than % of peers on standardized testing.

Student	Min/Day	%
A	20	90%
B	10	50%
C	1	10%







Elementary staff and students brought many character's to life during Dr. Seuss week with everyone involved in celebrating Read Across America. Each day students participated in a different activity focused on reading: Sleep Book, read in PJ's all day; Read My Shirt Day; If I Ran the Zoo Day; and Oh, the Places You'll Go Day. Teachers created an 'If I Ran the Circus' room, full of fun activities to ignite imaginations.

"Where words fail, music speaks"

PW Elementary staff and students welcomed Mrs. Amanda Sherman as the new Vocal Music teacher this past school year. She previously taught vocal music grades k-12 at Clay Schools for 8 years, a School Counselor at Green School for 3 years, and was the Talented & Gifted Coordinator for W-N during the 2016-17 school year.

"My first year as the Music Teacher at PWES was a blast. I love teaching music fundamentals to elementary age students, and I love seeing their knowledge and love for music grow. I'm very happy doing what I'm doing and have enjoyed being a part of the Senator family."

Mrs. Sherman's love for music, and for teaching music, was evident throughout the school year. In November, she coordinated the wonderful Veteran's Day Ceremony, bringing together elementary and middle school students to perform several songs. Elementary students also present annual Christmas and Spring Programs.

"My favorite quote is by Hans Christian Anderson—Where words fail, music speaks." The words, nor the music, failed when students sang and danced performing inspirational and uplifting songs. Songs about kindness, daring to dream, making a difference, believing in yourself, and smiling was the message elementary students shared at their Spring programs this year.

Staff and students are so happy to have Mrs. Sherman as part of our PWE family!

Elementary Develops Positive Behavior Matrix

The elementary Positive Behavior Intervention & Supports team worked diligently this past year developing a new PBIS schoolwide behaviors matrix. Funded by the U.S. Department of Education of Special Programs (OSEP), the program "emphasizes schoolwide systems of support that include proactive strategies for defining, teaching, and supporting appropriate student behaviors to create positive school environments."

Attention is focused on creating and sustaining Tier 1 supports (universal), Tier 2 supports (targeted group), and Tier 3 supports (individual) systems of support that improve lifestyle results (personal, health, social, family, work, recreation) for all children and youth.

Instead of a reactive approach to student misbehaviors using punishment-based strategies, PBIS reinforces positive social behaviors. Teaching behavioral expectations and rewarding students for following them is a much more positive approach than waiting for misbehavior to occur before responding.

The new elementary PBIS matrix focuses on four areas of behaviors, WEST: Work Ethic, Engagement, Safety, Teamwork. Specific behaviors are encouraged as students go through the school day in various areas of the building: classroom, hallway, restroom, cafeteria, recess, all other settings.

For more information about PBIS, you can visit pbis.org/school.

Visit the elementary website for more about the elementary PBIS program and other helpful information.

	Classroom	Recess
Work Ethic	Do our best	Do right thing
Engage	Watch/listen	Follow directions
Safety	Hands to self	Take turns
Teamwork	Help others	Act like a friend
