INTRODUCTION

In these pages we have included many of the moments that made the year a part of our memory. There were moments of happiness, moments of sadness, moments of disappointments, moments of contentment, and moments when we wondered what the future held in store.

The pictures tell a visual story of what we did and what we accomplished from our doings. It is true that the year has ended and that another group of Seniors have departed from J. D. Leftwich High School, but the beginning of next year will bring new people. People wanting to learn and striving to reach their goal in life. People that will become a part of what we call "the way we were."

ADMINISTRATION

With thoughts in mind, and in cliche with the appropriate theme "The Way We Were," it is my sincere wish that the pages of this yearbook will help you to recall a very eventful year in your life.

It has been the goal of the teachers, through training wisdom and devotion, to guide and direct you as students to the threshold of your potential.

Life is a matter of continuous choice between alternate courses of action. Our School Board, Administration and faculty, as your friends, pray that you will make wise choices so that your paths will be the way of love, peace, happiness, and understanding.

We are all happy to receive the "Diamond-back" and we will enjoy looking through its pages to see "The Way We Were" during 1974-75. These pages will help us recall mixed feelings about the various activities of the school year. However, the greatest joys may well be mixed with amusement and sadness when we thumb through the pages years hence. The many activities of the 1974-75 school year could be memories that would have been forgotten if it were not for the "Diamond-back". As we reminisce through its pages, let us not forget the vast amount of time and effort that has gone into the production of this storehouse of memories.

As your principal, my sincere wish is that now and in the future we may be able to look back and say that "The Way We Were" in 1974-75 was a good year.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

In the days and years to come it is my sincere wish and hope that as we look through the pages of this yearbook and see ourselves "The Way We Were" we will be able to hold our heads high with pride.

We, as an elementary school faculty have tried to instill in the minds of our students a desire to attain high goals.

It is our desire to help children become sensitive citizens by developing within them a sense of appreciation for friends, family, and school. We seek to open doors of awareness and concern.

MR. AND MISS MHS

The Mr. & Miss MHS Pageant was held on December 13, 1974. The winners, Rickey Scott and Debbie Beggs, were chosen from seven contestants by three judges. The girls were judged according to sportswear, talent, and evening gowns which they displayed. The boys were judged on poise and appearance.

The pageant was sponsored by the Student Council, with the help of Mrs. Price and Mrs. Henderson. Mr. Garrett was Master of Ceremonies.

RICKEY SCOTT DEBBIE BEGGS

MR. & MISS DIAMONDBACK

Rickey and Laura were selected as Mr. and Miss Diamondback by popular vote by the yearbook staff. Much credit must be given them for their many hours of work on the Diamondback. THE WAY WE WERE—IT'S A WINTER WONDERLAND AT MHS HOMECOMING '75.

We began our New Year at MHS with Homecoming '75. The theme: "A Winter Wonder Land!" Our goal was to project the spirit of winter—snow, hot cocoa and snowball fights—just the simple ways of having good times.

The senior basketball team chose the 1975 Homecoming Queen, Miss Alfreda Gordon. Her court included the following: Senior maid, Carol Scantling escorted by Don Murray; Junior maid, Beth Haynes escorted by Jon Abrahamson; Sophomore maid, Ellen Goodwin escorted by Tim Warren; Freshman maid, Nanette Fox escorted by Randy Sheppard; Eighth grade maid, Molly Holbrook escorted by Mike Robertson; and Seventh grade maid, Gaylon Love escorted by Kenneth Whitehead. Queen Alfreda was escorted by Steve Phillips and crowned by Superintendent Doyle Garrett. Crown bearer and Flower girl were, respectively, Bruce McConnell and Paula Leslie.

CHEERLEADERS: 1974-75

We, the cheerleaders of MHS, realize that our purpose is to promote spirit and support our athletic teams in any way possible. Our goal is to stand by them in their victories and their losses—to share the bad times along with the good.

As cheerleaders we projected the spotlight on our teams and not ourselves. We had our ups and downs but we felt that the 1974-75 basketball season was the greatest.

We were proud of the 1974-75 Rattlers, of what they accomplished and what they stood for. For some of us this was our last chance to be a part, but it will always be in our memories that "we were . . ."

"ODE TO A SENIOR CLASS '75"

Once upon a time in those wondrous days of yore, there lived a Senior Class. It wasn't a large class, but they still had very much fun and many memories.

Out of this class would rise people that were going to try to tackle the world.

There were automotive mechanics and race-car drivers, who enjoyed the world of automobiles (and tried to stay on the right track). There were outdoorsmen (and outdoorswomen) such as hunters, fishermen, and foresters. Some enjoyed the arts such as painting and motion pictures. There was never a dull moment hearing the latest gossip or a report on a best-seller.

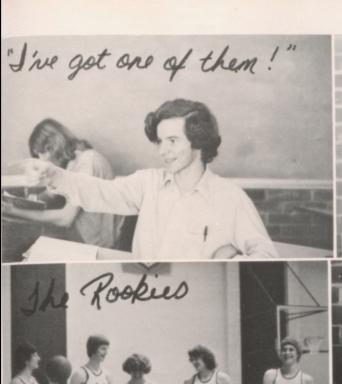

The eccentric millionaire of the class always brought joy to the group (or to himself) by telling of his treasures, and through all of his unstableness, there was one who faced it all and always had something to say no matter what happened. The "basketball boys" wanted very much to play professional basketball, but then, you know how rookies are. Alas, all good things must come to an end and so it did for the couple that was convicted for falling in love. Out of this class

Out of this class grew many memories that each student will hold close to their heart as unforgettable sentimentalities. Ah! And of course, Mr. Casada, the class sponsor, who endured the up's and down's of the year. His leadership of the gang will always be appreciated and remembered by those in the class.

Thus, they were all very happy and did live happily ever after. As the closing days drew near, they all talked of the good times and the memories.

Well, that final day did come, and after the goodbyes were all said and done, they all drove off into their future.

-John Denver

It's not the easiest thing to put into words what the past twelve years have meant to the Senior class of '75. It seems like yesterday we started our first year in school; that first day started our tomorrows, our dreams, our loving and caring, our yesterdays. We believe in tomorrow but until then it's only a closed door that holds our dreams and our future. Memories of yesterday will never be forgotten; they will be held in our minds to be remembered when our dreams come true. Loving and caring came from our parents who stood beside us, helped us, and let us learn from experience knowing we would be hurt. How can they ever know how much we love and appreciate them for all the times they wanted to step out and shield us from that hurt. How can we ever know where "Poems, Prayers, and Promises" will lead us?
