A Special Thanks

At Left: Steve Jenkins
Below: Rhonda Haugh and Kay Morris,
Annual Editors — 1983

The Rattler Annual Staff expresses appreciation to Steve Jenkins for providing the artistic work throughout our 1983 yearbook. Steve designed the cover, endsheets, and division pages of our annual. Many long hours were spent by Steve in creating and drawing these special features. The Annual Staff is deeply grateful to Steve for his dedication and hard work in preparing for what we believe is one of the most creative, attractive and personalized yearbooks that we have been privileged to have.

Thank you, Steve!

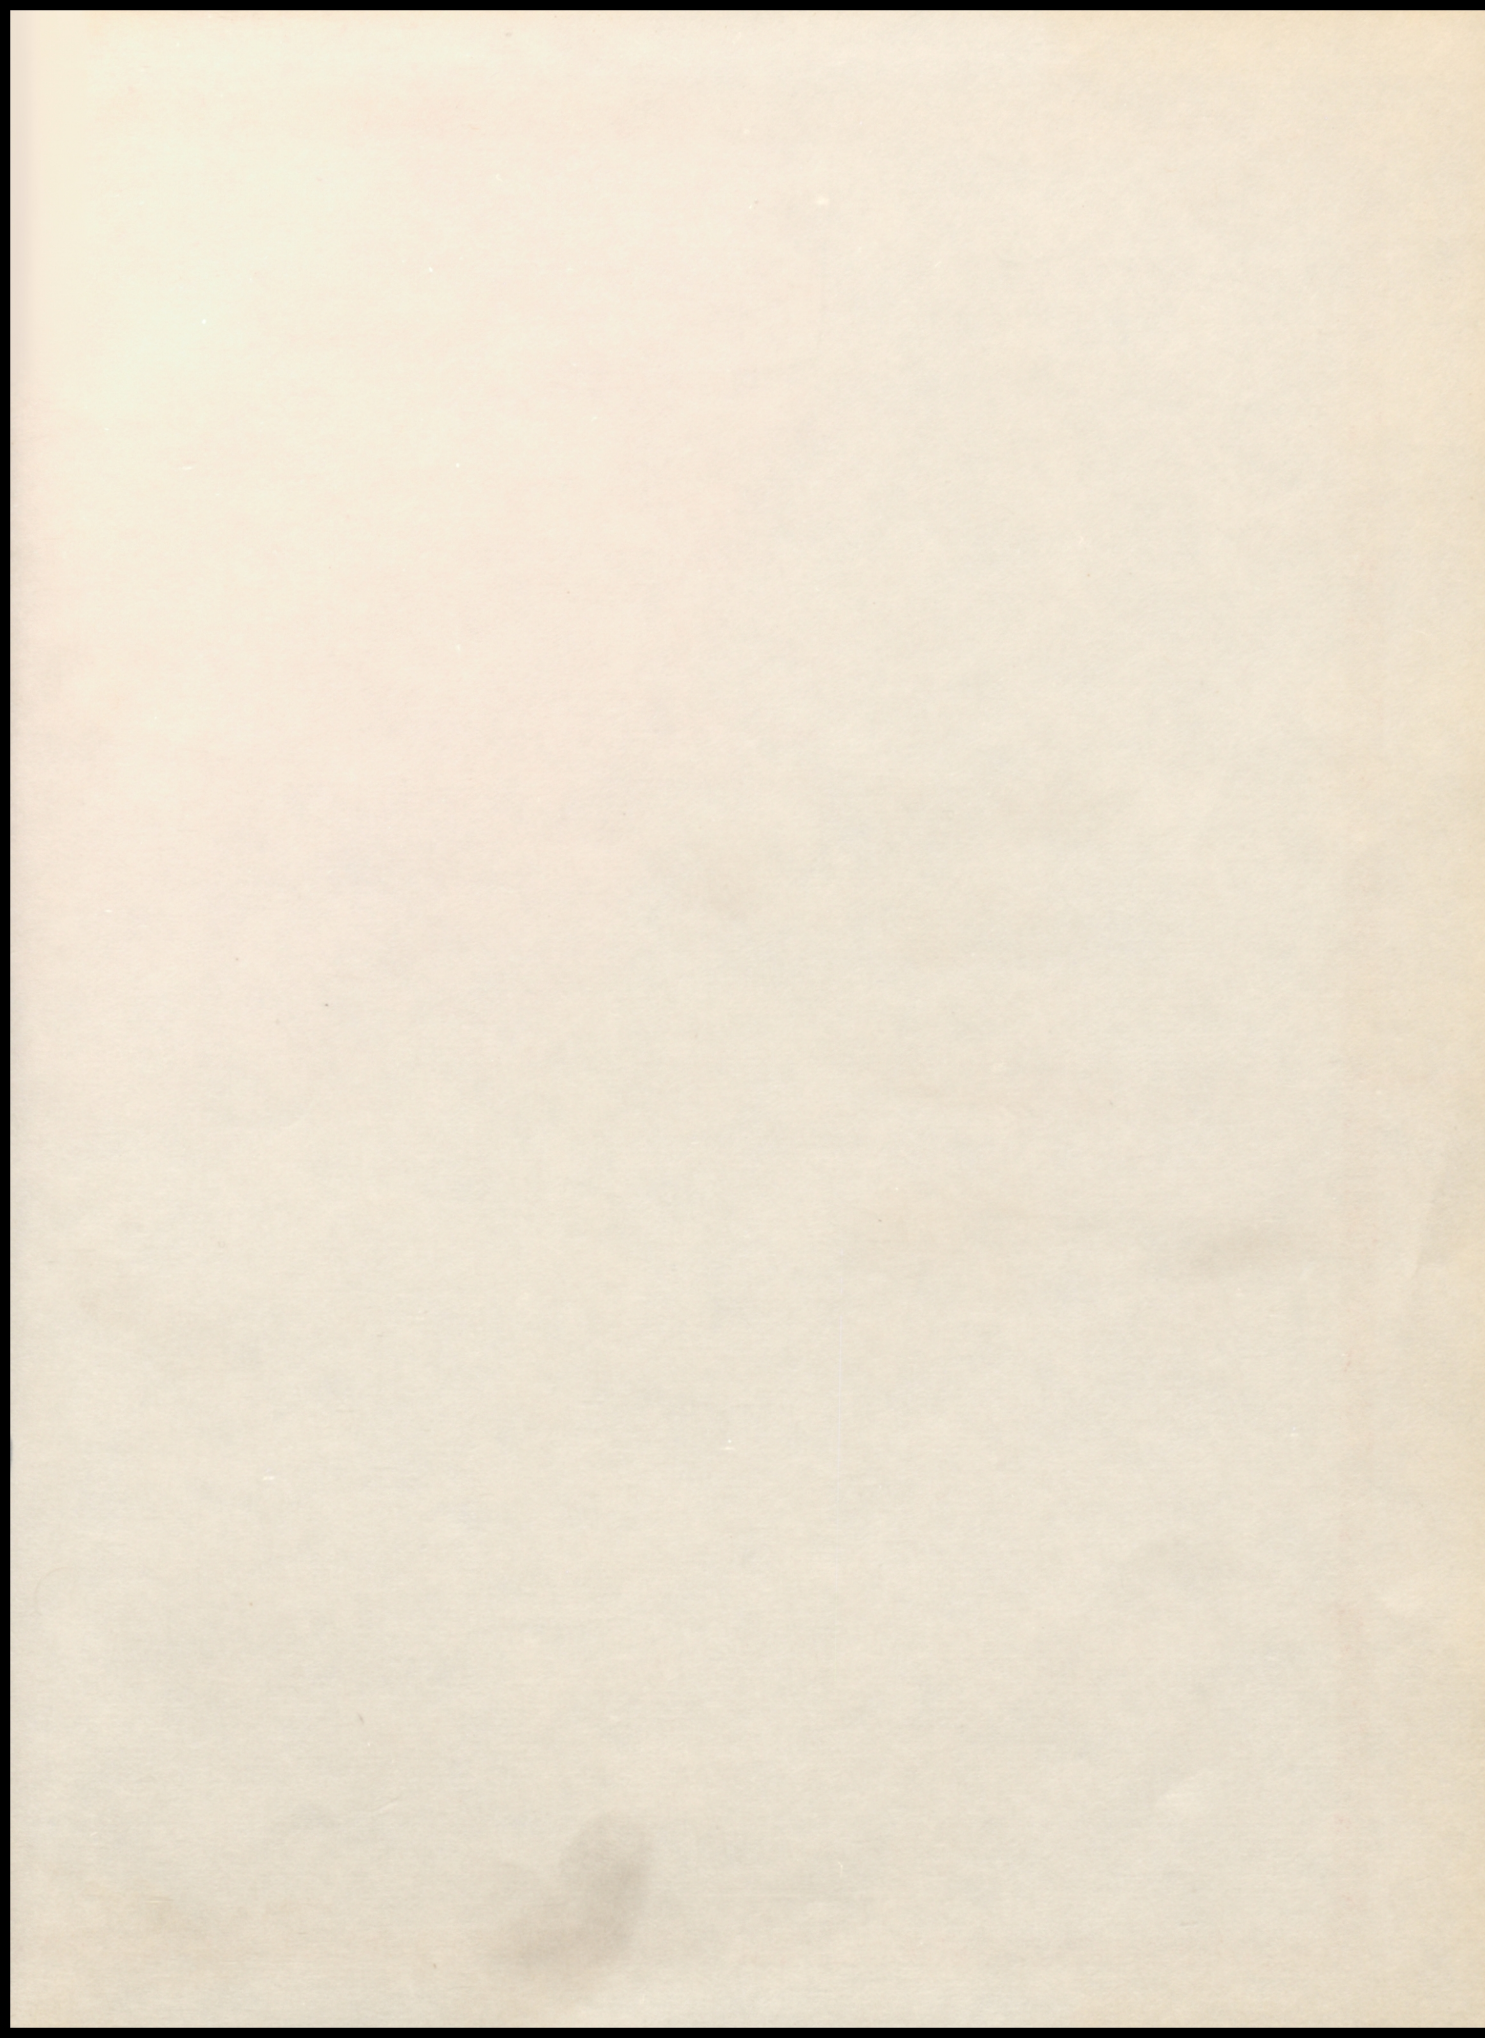

Also our Rattler Staff would like to thank our two editors, Kay Morris and Rhonda Haugh, for the excellent job they have done in organizing our 1983 Yearbook.

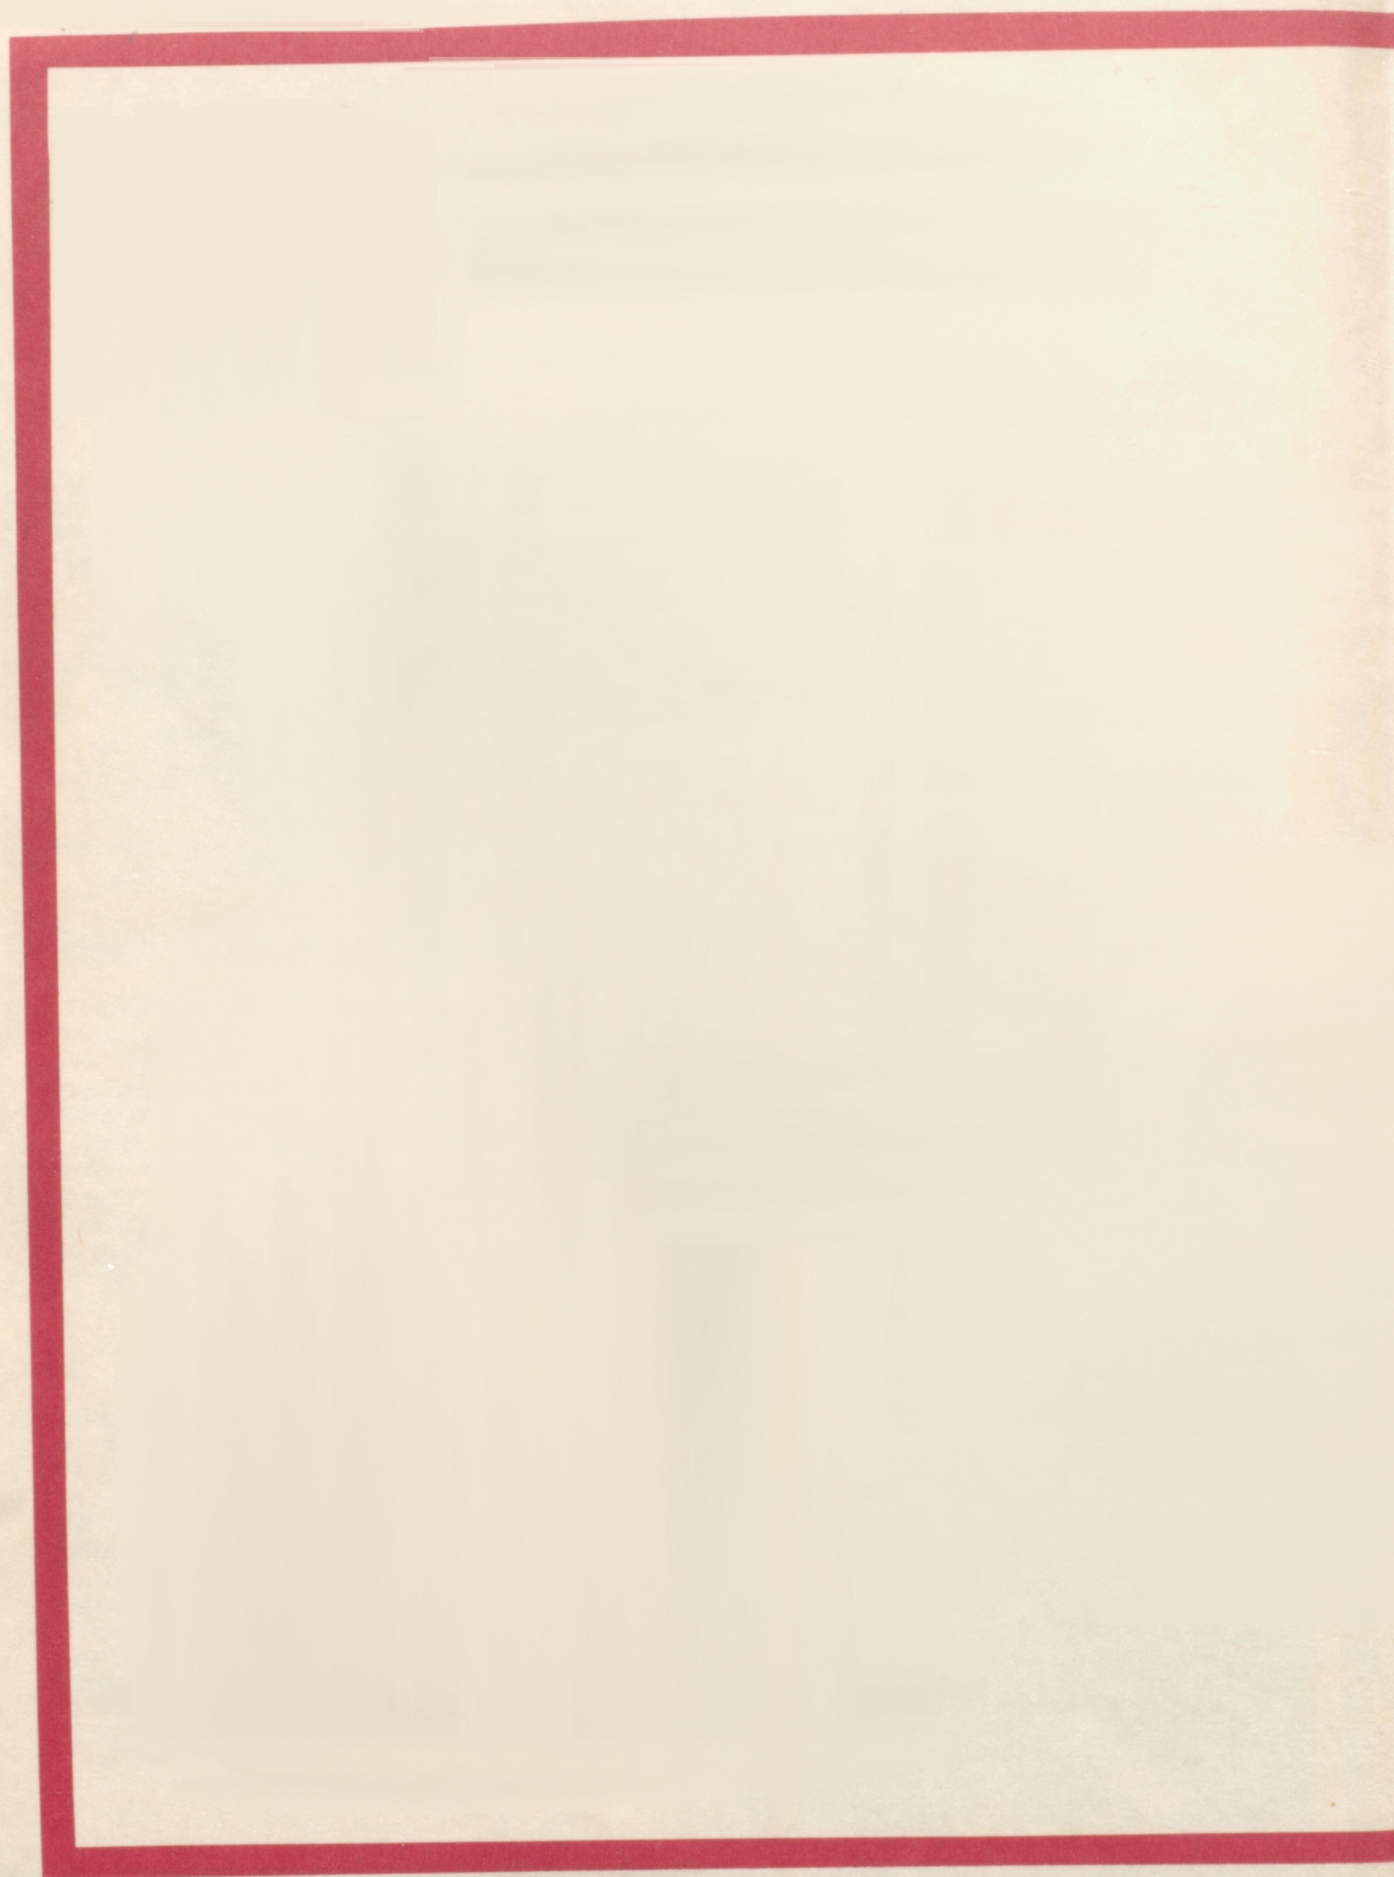

Both Kay and Rhonda worked diligently and enthusiastically throughout the preparation of the annual. As editors, they assumed many responsibilities.

The members of the Annual Staff appreciate their many hours of hard work and the positive attitude that they have maintained.

Our thanks, Kay and Rhonda!
